Queen Sees Grid Game

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip went American Saturday. They took in a football game and visited a supermarket to the delighted surprise of cart-pushing Saturday shoppers.

The royal couple watched Maryland's 21-7 upset of North Carolina at nearby College Park, Md.

Elizabeth mostly wore a poker face, in contrast to the lusty cheering of 43,000 fans, and never betrayed which side, if any, she was rooting for. But Philip picked a loser. He had told reporters he understood North Carolina was "tipped to win."

One of their hosts, Goy Theodore R. McFeldin of Maryland, had Elizabeth grinning at his antics. There was no question he was for Maryland. Every time the football Terpsins made progress, McFeldin was out of his seat, waving wildly. Elizabeth had to get up once, too, to see around him when Maryland intercepted a North Carolina pass.

It was at the Queenstown section of suburban West Hyattsville, Md., that Elizabeth and Philip pulled their surprise visit.

Wanted to See

They had passed the supermarket as they rolled in President Eisenhower's bubble-top limousine to College Park. The Queen said she wished she could look in on the plane, but her wish was the State Department's command.

The supermarket's assistant manager, Donald A. D'Avanzo, was alerted an hour in advance. He was asked to keep the news to himself. Extra police arrived to keep back the crowds.

One woman almost dropped her groceries when the Queen spoke to her. That was when her majesty, bemused by the grocery cart's little collapsible seat for small fry, beamed: "It is particularly nice to be able to bring your children here."

Many Gifts

Elizabeth was showered at the game with gifts for herself, Philip and their youngsters — a carved glass bowl, a small equestrian china figure, Indian arrows and arrowheads, music boxes fashioned like a football.

McFeldin kept Elizabeth posted on what the game, her first, was all about. But she seemed far more interested in the sideshow—the cheer leaders, majorettes, card stunts spelling out her "EIR" royal monogram.

Kohler's firm and the UAW had been locked in a bitter labor dispute since April 1954, at the Wisconsin firm's plumbing fixture plant.

Manion said Kohler's talk gave the Kohler management's version of the strike and was critical of UAW conduct.

Bones Of Young Cattle Found Aid In Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) — A surgeon reported Saturday that bone from young cattle has been used successfully in many bone grafting operations.

Dr. E. J. Tucker, an orthopedic surgeon from Houston, Tex., said calf bone has been used in 400 major fracture cases, and the parts took hold in all but five instances.

He commented in an address to the American Rhinologic Society, that calf bone encourages an early rejoining of fractured bone segments and can be stored easily and supply is virtually unlimited

Israeli Jet Fires On Jordan Plane, American Pilot

CAIRO (AP) — The American pilot of the Air Jordan passenger plane reported Saturday night an Israeli jet fighter fired on the plane five times over Jordan territory in a vain effort to force him to land in Israel.

The Air Jordan craft was not hit. It landed safely at Cairo with its 14 passengers and four crew members unharmed.

Capt. Jesse Stillworth of Pine Bluff, Ark., said in an interview the incident occurred about 50 miles north-northeast of Aqaba, Jordan, in midafternoon as he was flying the DC3 from the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem to Cairo.

He said the Israeli jet crossed his path, made two passes around the plane and indicated it should head from the Arab nation toward Israeli territory.

"When I tried to continue on my regular course, the Israeli plane opened fire at us five times," Stillworth said. "Each time he fired approximately 25 rounds of ammunition. The flak came so close we flew through puffs of smoke, but apparently we weren't hit. Frankly I don't see how he missed us."

Stillworth said he then began descending for a possible emergency landing at Aqaba.

"When we were at approximately 2,500 feet over Aqaba—the Jordanian city—he got below us and fired another blast up at us," Stillworth said.

"At this point he appeared to be running out of fuel, so he left us and proceeded back into Israel. When we reached Cairo I examined the plane, but did not find any signs we were hit."

Stillworth said five of his 14 passengers were Americans. He said he frequently carried 30 to 40 flights over that route.

LaSalle Teamsters Vote To Remain In AFL-CIO

LASALLE, Ill. (AP) — The president of a Teamsters union local who has been at odds with the union's international leadership and advised Manion it would remain with the AFL-CIO in the event it ousted the Teamsters in national union.

Barney Mutual, president of LaSalle-Peru Local 46, announced yesterday that the 694-member local would stay within the AFL-CIO in the event the parent teamster union was ousted. This, he said, was the sentiment approved unanimously Tuesday by a meeting attended by 70 members of the local including its officers and executive board members.

It implied that the Soviet Union and probably Red China should be asked to join a round-table meeting designed to stay years of a new world war springing from the Turkish-Syria dispute which Moscow seems content to keep at the boiling point.

"After all," Moscow radio said, "there is not a single international problem now that can be settled singly. But Mr. Macmillan's meeting with the President hints at a separate plot by one group of powers against others, against the Soviet Union in particular."

Red China has supported Soviet charges that the United States is inciting Turkey to invade Syria. It pledged military support for Syria in event of aggression.

Cool To Proposal

The British Foreign Office is cool to the idea of a summit conference. A spokesman said it was unlikely to be discussed by Eisenhower and Macmillan.

Soviet war talk about the Turkish-Syrian border has puzzled Western diplomats as well as the Turks, who deny they are about to attack anyone. Even some Syrian quarters privately discount the threat.

Rail Brotherhood To Start Health Program In 1958

CHICAGO (AP) — General chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen Saturday voted to establish a health security program in 1958.

H. E. Gilbert, international president, also announced the chairman voted to use for wages a 7-cent an hour pay increase effective Nov. 1, 1958 will be applied to the health and medical plan.

The pay increases are part of a three-year agreement signed in 1956 with the nation's railroads. Gilbert said a 1956 moratorium allowed the brotherhood to use the 1957 increase for wages or the establishment of a health program.

Long Island Beauty Dies In Air Crash

FARMINGDALE, N. Y. (AP) — A beautiful blonde about to be crowned "Mrs. Long Island," was fatally injured Saturday when a helicopter struck a flagpole and crashed before horrified thousands here.

Mrs. Myna Nichol, Levittown, died at a hospital in Copiague shortly after the crash. She was reported to have had both legs broken and Rushton was reported in serious condition at Lake Side Hospital.

Two other persons were seriously injured in the crash. They were Richard Rushton, Little Neck, pilot of the helicopter, and Jerry Nagler, public relations man for the celebration.

Two long parades of oil heating exhibits had merged on the institute grounds. The parades were waiting for Mrs. Nichol to land, stepped out of the helicopter, and be crowned "Mrs. Long Island."

Nagler was reported to have had more gas than he had planned on.

Ice Doubles Troubles

Ice on the wings just after dawn caused the plane to start losing altitude. He tried to contact the Santiago de Compostela Airport in Spain but couldn't. Later, he sighted a freighter but was unable to contact it on his radio, either.

"I had just about given up hope when I saw the fishing boat," he said.

He flashed a signal with his mirror and the fishing craft—Virgin del Buen Consejo—Virgin of Good Advice—answered. Then, with a sputtering engine, he brought the plane down as close as he could to the boat.

Wyatt was trying to break a flight record to small planes set in March 1949, by the late U.S. flier, William P. Odom, who flew a Beechcraft Bonanza 4,857.4 miles from Honolulu to Teterboro, N.J.

Wyatt's backers in Galveston, Md. Rachel, said he talked with the pilot by telephone and was told the plane's engine quit just before he ditched. Rachel called it a dead stick landing.

Rachel said Wyatt suffered minor bruises and the plane apparently only minor damage.

Wyatt will decide Monday whether the plane can be flown.

Rachel said, and if so he will take it to Paris and fly it back to Galveston.

Wyatt took off from Galveston at 9:25 a.m. Thursday and had hoped to reach Rome in about 40 hours. He had fuel for 44 hours.

Seek Peace In Mideast

By WILLIAM N. OTIS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N. General Assembly, it was said Saturday may hold day-and-night debate next week for quick disposal of Syrian-Soviet charges that Turkey plans to attack Syria with U. S. help.

Meanwhile the idea of sending a commission to investigate the situation seemed to have won wide acceptance. Various delegations consulted on the terms of a resolution to set up the commission.

A usually well informed diplomat said the president of the 32-nation Assembly had in mind to call morning, afternoon and night meetings Tuesday and Wednesday if necessary to reach a decision on the subject.

The diplomatic informant, speaking anonymously, told a reporter the Assembly president, Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, would like to finish with the matter before Thursday's celebration of U.N. Day, 12th anniversary of the U.N. Charter's coming into effect.

Reds Suggest Separate Talks

LONDON (AP) — Moscow suggested Saturday that Britain and the United States call Russia into an East-West summit conference aimed at restoring calm along the troubled border between Turkey and Syria.

The broadcasts insist the United States is egging on the Turks and has offered the help of the U.S. 6th Fleet, now widely dispersed after engaging in joint maneuvers with Turkey earlier this month.

One broadcast beamed to North America said "an agreement can still be concluded not to supply arms to the Middle East and to condemn the use of force" but said Secretary of State Dulles was blocking action.

Turkey's Note Ignored

Moscow broadcasts to the Middle East ignored Turkey's note to Syria denying any intentions of attacking. In the note, Turkey reserves the right to move troops inside the Arab states.

Two entries from the United States who had been considered favorites for the two major titles in the lengthy competition finished atop their divisions. This in effect gave them runner-up spots in the complicated method of judging.

They were Rog Lewis, 21, a gymnasium instructor from Santa Monica, Calif., who won the tall men's honors in professional ranks; and Ronald Lacy, 25, of Lexington, Ky., who topped the middle-aged men in the amateur division.

But in Cairo, Egyptian newspapers showed war jitters with such stories as:

"Any miscalculation in the situation on the Turkish-Syrian border means atomic war."

The Soviet Union has warned it would immediately come to Syria's aid if she were attacked by imperialist-supported Turkey.

Turkey at the same time moved to reassure Lebanon. While it has been quarreling with neighboring Syria, Lebanon has shown nervousness over the Middle East situation.

Wyatt Fails Of Goal; 850 Miles From Rome

CORUNA, Spain (AP) — An American pilot trying to set a new nonstop distance record for light planes dinked his ice-covered ship into the Atlantic Ocean at dawn Saturday on a flight from Galveston, Tex., to Rome. He was only 40 miles from land but 850 from Rome.

He tried to contact the Santiago de Compostela Airport in Spain but couldn't. Later, he sighted a freighter but was unable to contact it on his radio, either.

"I had just about given up hope when I saw the fishing boat," he said.

Wyatt's backers in Galveston, Md. Rachel, said he talked with the pilot by telephone and was told the plane's engine quit just before he ditched. Rachel called it a dead stick landing.

Rachel said Wyatt suffered minor bruises and the plane apparently only minor damage.

Wyatt will decide Monday whether the plane can be flown.

Rachel said, and if so he will take it to Paris and fly it back to Galveston.

"Dis-engage That Power Take-Off" is the theme song this fall for members of the Hoodhouse chapter of the Future Farmers of America who are taking part in the 1957 Illinois FFA Safe Corn Harvest program. Ardell Kimmel is the local vocational agriculture instructor, and he states that as their part in the campaign, the Roodhouse boys will visit farms in this area and will make sure that the farmers know the rules for safe operation of tractors, corn pickers, forage harvesters, combines, with row-crop attachments, silo blowers and elevators.

Each farmer who pledges himself to observe the rules for corn harvest safety will have a special "Safe Operator" sticker placed on his equipment by the boys.

The campaign will include films on preventing corn harvesting accidents, to remind farm people that farm equipment is designed for safe operation. These films will be shown to farm groups at meetings and in vocational agriculture classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Sterling, are spending a week with his sister, Miss Bernadine Lewis, and others.

Mrs. Lela Harris, Denver, Colo., is visiting in the home of her brother, Lloyd Bell, and wife.

Ross Reynolds, Miami, Fla., visited this week with his niece, Mrs. Galen Tipp.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Johnston, LaPorte, Ind., are visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Elliott, and family, and with friends in White Hall where he once served as pastor.

Bluffs Man Weds

MR. AND MRS. C. L. HAMILTON

BLUFFS — In mid-September a ceremony at Downey, California united in marriage Miss Shirley Joyce Guy of Maywood, California and Clarence Lloyd Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hamilton of Bluffs. The groom has been residing at Rivera, California.

Eighty-five guests attended the ceremony performed at Gretna Green Wedding Chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Clinton Guy, Nova Scotia, Canada.

A matron of honor, Mrs. Norma MacDonald, and two secondary attendants, Mrs. Betty Wellden and Mrs. Nora Farris, attended the bride.

Delbert Leible served as best man. Ushers were Walter Wellden and Frank Andersen. The Rev. Russell C. Gray officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a white taffeta gown with lace bodice. A Queen's crown of stiffened lace and pearls held secure her veil of illusion.

The matron of honor was in blue lace on taffeta; Mrs. Wellden, pink lace and taffeta and Mrs. Farris, yellow. The bride carried blue carnations and the attendants flowers to match the shades of their respective gowns. The couple reside at 4218 East Fifty-fourth street in Maywood, Calif.

Former Missionary To Speak At Tri-County Meeting In Franklin

A tri-county convention of Disciples of Christ churches in Jacksonville, Franklin, Lynnhaven, Virginia, Chapin, Ashland and Winchester will be held Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the Christian church in Franklin.

The speaker will be Mrs. Ralph Palmer of Indianapolis, Ind., who is a former missionary to Japan.

Lynnhaven, quadrennial insights with Mrs. Claude Jewsbury of Jacksonville in charge; Virginia church missionary address and a hymn by Mrs. Palmer.

In the afternoon Franklin will have charge of devotions; Mrs. F. W. Schulits of Chapin will sing; Jacksonville's Illinois Christian Home will extend greetings and the Ashland group will have a reading.

MRS. RALPH PALMER

Mrs. Palmer with her husband served in the evangelistic and church development field in Japan from 1952 to 1956.

In mid-1957 her husband was appointed executive secretary of the department of missionary selection and training of The United Christian Missionary Society, an international board which administers Christian education, world missions and many services to the churches. They now reside in Indianapolis, Ind.

Worked With Husband

During their years in Japan Mr. and Mrs. Palmer made an outstanding record in evangelism and church development. For two years Mrs. Palmer assisted her husband in his pastoral work at Honjo (pronounced Hohn-jo). The Palmers, continuing to reside in Honjo, next served as evangelists for the Akita (pronounced aa-ke-tah) and Aomori (pronounced ah-moh-ree) prefectures within the United Church of Japan. They continued this work in pioneer rural evangelism until returning to the United States on through Honjo.

At the mission she helped with the church school and carried on social welfare work and evangelism among the women and children and especially among the young people. She took responsibility for the direction of all Christian education for the churches and preaching points while her husband served as minister-evangelist.

Ladies attending were Mrs. Laura Dawdy, Mrs. Ruby Bowman, Mrs. Nona Oldom, Mrs. Martha Shafer and son Rickey, Mrs. Juanita Rollins and two children, Mrs. Bess Bowman, Mrs. Judy Little and son Steve, Mrs. Mary Lou Burton, and daughter, Debbie, Mrs. Phyllis Dewdy and son, Ross, and Mrs. Helen Bain.

Stubblefield-Dierker Nuptials

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST DIERKER

The Central Christian church in this city was the scene at High Noon Saturday, October twelfth, of the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Mary Elizabeth Stubblefield of Chicago and a former Fulton county resident to Ernest Dierker of Kilbourne, near Havana.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Hobbs of Maneto and a close friend, Dr. Robert Hilker of Chicago, escorted the bride to the altar. The bride, known to family and friends as Bettie, is a sister of Mrs. Gladys Rust of this city.

Yellow mums with bronze chrysanthemums centered the altar banked with a profusion of ferns. Robert Wegehoff presided at the organ with a selection of nuptial numbers and provided accompaniment for Ralph Jones who sang "Because" and during the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer."

The former Miss Stubblefield is the daughter of Mrs. Oliver Weakly Stubblefield of Ipava and the Mrs. Frederick W. Dierker and Susan Kilbourne.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kramer, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baughman; Janet, Joan and Judy of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kraeling, Easton; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pearson, Chicago.

Miss Marie Holoubek and Arvid Swanson, Chicago; Mrs. Addie Hommon, Ipava; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rust and Wesley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doolin and Rebecca, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, all of Jacksonville.

Mr. O. W. Stubblefield of Ipava and the hostess and her assistants.

Fall Shades Predominant

The bride wore beige taffeta cut sheath style and street length. The portrait neckline was finished with soft folds at the front bodice and outlined in lace studded with pearls. The sleeves of the dress were popular three-quarter length. Her small floral hat was worn with a short veil and she carried brown orchids with yellow mums tied with glistening brown and beige satin ribbons.

The matron of honor also wore beige taffeta with a brown trim and carried a bouquet of brown and yellow mums.

Three cousins of the bride, Janet, Joan and Judy Baughman, wearing tangerine colored taffeta frocks, lighted candles at the altar during the prelude.

Susan Dierker, a niece of the groom, was the flower girl and a niece of the bride, Rebecca Doolin and a nephew, Paul Wesley Rust, were ring bearers. The little girls wore beige taffeta with matching embroidered organdy trim and brown sashes. The little boy wore a corduroy suit in the same brown shade as the sashes on the girls' dresses.

Mrs. Stubblefield wore for her daughter's wedding orchid crepe with pink accessories and a white purple-throated orchid. Mrs. Dierker wore beige with matching colors and a purple orchid.

Reception at Temple

A reception was held in the Lounge at the Masonic Temple where the tables were arranged by Bob Kaentle and Ken Brown, friends of the bride from Menasha, Wisconsin. Punch was served by the bride's niece, Mrs. Joseph Doolin, from a large round table covered with a yellow and white cloth located at the end of the receiving line. The wedding cake was triple tiered and frosted in all white centering a table covered with a beige cloth run with silk golden threads. The cake was served with yellow and white mintes imprinted with the couple's first names, mixed salted nuts and dipped almonds. Coffee was served by Mrs. Norman Kramer, sister of the groom and Mrs. John Martin, niece of the bride, cut cake.

Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Paul Rust, Mrs. Donald Baughman, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Raymond Hardy, Mrs. Frederick Dierker, Mrs. Dale Kraeling and Mrs. Fred Shearburn.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mrs. Rust entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening. Decorations were yellow mums with white stock, brown leaves and wheat flanked by yellow tapers. Assisting at the dinner were Miss Lucille Grover, Miss Mitzi Seitz, Mrs. Leona Sharp of Chicago and Mrs. Fay Mentler and Mrs. John May of Jacksonville.

Guests were the betrothed couple, Bettie Stubblefield and Ernest Dierker; Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hilker, Chicago; Mr. and

Former Teacher At White Hall Weds In West

WHITE HALL—Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Edith Mae McDowell to Ernest C. Laycock, both of Tucson, Ariz. The ceremony took place Friday evening, Sept. 13, 1957, at 7:00 o'clock, in the First Assembly of God church, Tucson.

The couple then departed on a wedding trip to Dallas, Tex. Since Monday, Sept. 23, they have been at home at 3906 East Paseo Grande, Tucson.

For the informal ceremony, the bride chose a toast colored silk lace frock lined with beige taffeta. Her headband was of beige silk tulle adorned with rhinestones, and an orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Laycock received her education at Eastern Illinois University, at Charleston, and did graduate work at Colorado State College. She taught homemaking in Illinois for a number of years before going to Tucson. Mrs. Laycock is well-known in White Hall, having served as a member of the White Hall High School faculty for several years.

The bridegroom received his education in Canada, and is now associated with the audit and analysis group at Hughes Aircraft.

If you dollars come so easily that you can spend this sum for just one side of lightweight music which may grow on you, as it has on me, I suggest that you buy the record. Make a gesture of encouragement for Mr. Katz; for if he wins his navel battle he's in.

I'm sorry, but I've always felt that there is something ridiculous about a jazz violin, and Esquire's search for a new sound, which found Winnie Burke's String Jazz Quartet, leaves me still lost. This record (ABC 170) has only a few minutes of honest interest. String Quartets are ensembles for whirling, vibrating together, not to be strung out for solo after solo over

Home Bureau Activities

The Town and Country unit of Morgan-Scott Home Bureau met October 10 at the home of Mrs. Ed Plichta, with Mrs. John E. Doyle as assistant hostess.

The unit chairman, Mrs. Plichta, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag. Mrs. Marvin Schuetz presented the major lesson, "How Safe is Your Water Supply?" She illustrated the lesson and a discussion followed.

Mrs. Glenn Kendall gave the minor lesson, "Customs in Other Lands—Ceylon." The members again were greatly surprised that this little land with such a source of wealth. Mrs. Mildred Waters was in charge of the recreation period. Thirteen members gave an idea at roll call. A note of thanks was read from Mrs. J. F. Stine.

Mrs. Ruth Massey was appointed to give the major lesson for December. The December meeting will be a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Arthur Seeman on Dec. 12. There will be a gift exchange.

Mrs. Glenn Kendall of the nominating committee presented the following slate of officers for the coming year: Mrs. Paul Rust, chairman; Mrs. George Waters, vice chairman; Mrs. William Mungatroyd, secretary; Mrs. Howard Brown, treasurer.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Jacksonville Evening Unit to be held Thursday, Nov. 21.

Elect Officers At Virginia Kiwanis Meeting

VIRGINIA—Monday evening, the Virginia Kiwanis club held their weekly meeting and dinner in the Virginia Coffee Shop. After the dinner, an election of officers for 1958, was held and resulted in George McDonald being chosen president; 1st vice president, David Finney; 2nd vice president, Richard Pugh; secretary-treasurer, C. R. Wilson; Board of Directors, N. M. Veiten, Harold Brannan, Wm. M. Yarie, Rev. Richard Horst, Jack French, Ted Harrison, Rev. Paul DuBois. Installation will be held the first of the year.

Carl Smith, retiring president, read a most interesting paper on the Russian satellite. Plans were completed for the annual Halloween party for the children of the area, which will be held at 7 o'clock, October 31, on the athletic field at the high school. A committee is planning for a Ladies' Night to be held in the near future.

CWF Hears Book Reports By High School Students

The regular meeting of Christian Women's Fellowship of Central Christian Church met recently at the Masonic Temple under the guidance of the president, Mrs. Gladys Rust.

Mrs. Rust opened the meeting with a word of welcome to all guests present. Thirteen members of Mt. Emory Baptist and Bethel M. E. Churches were guests to hear the Book Reviews given on the subjects carrying out the theme of the National program of CWF, "Christ, the Church and Race." Mrs. Ernest Savage introduced the students of Jacksonville High School who participated.

Judi Boruff presented the book "When God Says No," the story of a woman desiring to become a preacher of a Congregational Church in Chicago and the trials she went through to fulfill this desire. To build such a Church, the philosophy of the woman was: Hold on; have faith; one step more; this will be done, not mine.

The second book "In The Grey Rain" was presented by Connie Copeland. This was based on the courage of a woman working as a Missionary in the United States and Japan in which was described the patience and the courage of the Japanese people, in her experiences.

The third presentation was "Road Without Turning," the life of Dr. James Robinson, negro minister of New York. The drama of a people struggling to preserve their own rights was displayed here. Ken Dobson presented this in detail.

"Light In The Forest" was presented by Milton Schroeder. The book discloses a story of a man raised as an Indian who unhesitatingly conforms to the ways of a white man.

Nancy Kelly chose the book, "Miracle In The Mountains." This was the experiences of a woman who promoted a school starting with donations from Andrew Carnegie.

Much recognition is due such students for their brilliance in presenting such outstanding and educational literature.

Following the program, Mrs. Claude Jewsbury presented Reading Certificates to the ladies of the Church who read books of distinction during the past year. As many as twenty-four books were read in many cases.

The following women were presented awards: Mrs. Emma Wilding, Mrs. Gladys Rust, Mrs. Ernest Savage, Mrs. Joseph Doolin, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Miss Verna Butcher and Mrs. Edison Haywood.

Following the meeting, a silver tea was served in the social rooms.

Rickey Jr. was stricken with leukemia about six months ago. The family has been at the City of Good Hope for about a month in order that the child may receive treatment.

Sam Snow has received word that the child's condition fluctuates from day to day. Mr. Snow is an uncle of Miss Travis.

JUST A PREMONITION

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP) — "I'm not superstitious," said at Alamogordo city fireman recently, "but let's not put a story in the paper about not having a fire around this town for almost a month."

Probably nothing would happen, but I don't like to take chances," he told a reporter.

Less than two hours later there was a fire.

Virginia P.T.A. To Begin Membership Drive Soon

The Virginia Parent-Teachers Association met at the high school at 8 p.m. Monday with a large attendance and, with Mrs. Floyd Leonhard, local chapter president, presiding.

After the meeting was called to order, the Pledge of Allegiance was led by John R. Graves. Reports of secretary and treasurer followed and officers announced that the new picture provided by the group for use of the grade school class with the most parents in attendance each month would be hung in the room of grade 3A, taught by Mrs. Lois Achne, during the next month. During the past school term, the grade winning the honor each month was furnished an ice cream treat by the PTA, but this year the picture will be the prize each month with the further provision that any grade winning the attendance prize for three months during the school term will be awarded the picture permanently and another will be purchased.

Mrs. Chester Winner urged everyone present at the meeting Monday to subscribe to the PTA magazine, and Mrs. Carl Peterson gave a report on the membership committee meeting, stating that this committee, headed by Mrs. Charles Crum, is planning an extensive membership drive.

Mrs. Crum, PTA membership chairman, and Mrs. Peterson will speak on PTA organization and membership privileges over station WLDS Monday, October 21, at 4 p.m.

News Notes From JHS

By
Connie Rae Copeland and Junior Gotschall

The spirit of Homecoming filled the air of JHS this week. A large number of students and alumni participated in the festivities.

A party in honor of Homecoming Queen Mary Ann Mitchell was held Thursday evening at the YMCA Youth Center. Jettes, cheerleaders, and the football team attended.

A gala parade started JHS Homecoming festivities Friday afternoon at 3:30. Sixteen floats decorated by high school students were entered in the parade. Each float represented various organizations and clubs of the high school. A picture of the winning float appeared in Saturday's Journal.

The queen rode in a convertible with Captain Stan Caine. The JHS marching band provided the parade atmosphere. Mr. James Welch was the parade marshal.

Student Council members decorated the JHS gym Friday morning for the dance that evening. Streamers were hung from the ceiling forming a canopy over the dance floor. The queen's chair was draped in white with a red and white backdrop inscribed "Queen Mary Ann." Judi Beruff was in charge of the decorations.

At the Homecoming Dance the crowning of the queen and the grand march took place. Jettes were escorted by members of the varsity football team. The football captain, Stan Caine, escorted Queen Mary Ann Mitchell. The crown bearer was the president of Jettes, Janet Elliott. During the ceremony the queen was presented with a charm bracelet as a reminder of this occasion. The presentation was made by the student council treasurer, Pat Apulis. The wonderful dance ended homecoming for '57.

On behalf of the faculty and students of JHS we express our sympathy to the three Routt students injured in an accident last week. Reports seem to be favorable and we sincerely hope they will continue in that manner.

Concord Society To Clean Church Next Wednesday

FRANKLIN — The woman's Society of Christian Service of the Concord Methodist church met on Oct. 17 at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture. The members assembled at 9 a.m. and were served a delicious breakfast by the hostesses, Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture, Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mrs. Minerva Patterson and Mrs. Robert Schall. The meeting was called to order by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

The devotions were led by Mrs. John Rayborn. The group sang "Jesus Stands Among Us." Mrs. Rayborn read scripture from Ephesians. The devotional theme was home mission fields. "Where Cross the Crowded Ways" was sung by the group and this was followed with prayer by Mrs. Rayborn. She read meditations to close the devotions.

Roll call was answered by 21 members giving a Bible verse. Minutes of the September meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Robert Kircher. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Paul Hess, a report of the Fall District meeting at Winchester was given. Mrs. Carl Robison will present the study book on Japan which will be used at each meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 23 has been set for the time to clean the church.

Mrs. Anna Hermes Hostess
Mrs. Anna Hermes was hostess to the Alexander Woman's Country club Thursday.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Emmaline Kramp, and the pledge of allegiance was led by Margaret Camm. Roll call was answered by ten members and five guests with "How I First Met My Husband."

An interesting paper, "Unlocking the Secrets of the Universe" by George A. Stromeyer, was read by Mary Weiser. Games were enjoyed after the program.

The next meeting will be the winter party at the home of Louise Weigand, Nov. 14. Guests attending were Mrs. Leona Clancy, Mrs. Joe White, Mrs. Dorothy Dicker and Miss Mary Holman.

MYF At Whitlock Home

The Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the home of Sharon Whitlock Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The president, Donna Oxley, called the meeting to order and Norma Jusby read the minutes and dues were paid to the treasurer, Diane Dahman.

The members planned a traveling supper for the next meeting which will be Oct. 21. The first stop at 6:00 p.m. for supper at the home of Diane Dahman; second stop, at Karolyn Leak's home; third stop, Sharon Whitlock's.

Those attending were Mrs. Otto Nickel, Mrs. Tom Crawford, Mrs. Robert Schall, Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture, Mrs. John Rayborn, Mrs. Paul Hess, Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mrs. Minerva Patterson, Mrs. Roy Nickel, Mrs. Carl Robison, Mrs. Virgil Wegehoff, Mrs. Howard Hess, Mrs. Mary Kircher, Mrs. Robert Nickel, Mrs. Helen Zulauf, Mrs. Clarence Moss, Mrs. Robert Birdsell, Mrs. Tillie Schone, Mrs. Floyd Goodpasture, Mrs. Daniel Kircher and Mrs. Mattie Daniel. Children present were Anita Elliott and Janet Hess.

Mrs. John Rayborn read another article from the Methodist Woman entitled, "Let Us Sing The Wondrous Story." It was an informative article about the Wesley hymns. Charles Wesley's "Jesus Lover Of My Soul" was sung by the group. The meeting closed by repeating the benediction in unison.

Mrs. Paul Hess presented an interesting program, using the theme "Home Mission Centers and Race." She used posters to illustrate the five different Mission Centers she told about. An article from the Methodist Woman gave additional interesting stories of the work of the Navajo Center in New Mexico.

Mrs. John Rayborn read another article from the Methodist Woman entitled, "Let Us Sing The Wondrous Story." It was an informative article about the Wesley hymns. Charles Wesley's "Jesus Lover Of My Soul" was sung by the group. The meeting closed by repeating the benediction in unison.

Those attending were Mrs. Otto Nickel, Mrs. Tom Crawford, Mrs. Robert Schall, Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture, Mrs. John Rayborn, Mrs. Paul Hess, Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mrs. Minerva Patterson, Mrs. Roy Nickel, Mrs. Carl Robison, Mrs. Virgil Wegehoff, Mrs. Howard Hess, Mrs. Mary Kircher, Mrs. Robert Nickel, Mrs. Helen Zulauf, Mrs. Clarence Moss, Mrs. Robert Birdsell, Mrs. Tillie Schone, Mrs. Floyd Goodpasture, Mrs. Daniel Kircher and Mrs. Mattie Daniel. Children present were Anita Elliott and Janet Hess.

The members planned a traveling supper for the next meeting which will be Oct. 21. The first stop at 6:00 p.m. for supper at the home of Diane Dahman; second stop, at Karolyn Leak's home; third stop, Sharon Whitlock's.

Plans were laid for the organizational session by Jack Corrigan, Boy Scout representative who met recently with Marcus Strawn, Thomas Glassop and James Foster at the home of the latter.

Ralph Bersell, Administrator of Passavant Memorial Area Hospital was the speaker for the afternoon. His topic "Why Volunteers" was in keeping with the theme of the day. He defined a Deaconess as the Protestant counterpart of the Nun, those consecrated women who give so much in helping others. He reminded the ladies they are members of one of the oldest women's organizations in the United States. As a hospital Auxiliary The Passavant Aid was organized in 1896. He traced the history of the organization to the present time and reminded the group a volunteer practices stewardship and Christian religion building communities of love through service. "Each Christian is a little Christ" and it is a privilege to serve. The speaker stated in closing and added "Christ has no hands but our hands, no feet but our feet."

The next general meeting is being planned for January at which time several officers will be elected and yearly reports given.

Mrs. Hohman Speaks
Mrs. Gertrude Hobson, director of the hospital's School of Nursing, spoke to the group. She told of the extensive training now involved in the nursing field and the absolute need for interests in this training that involved many here-to-for unapplied phases to complete a nurses' understanding of all her patients.

The recreational unit for students nurses, Mrs. L. Vernon Caine and Mrs. Harrison King, co-chairmen assisting in the development program, includes: art, music, literature appreciation; understanding of all religions and social skills.

Mrs. Eugene Keefe, treasurer, gave an interesting and enlightening report, speaking of the many things accomplished by the organization in the year. The most recent is the purchase of more air conditioners for hospital rooms. She reminded all of the Remembrance Chest contributions to the Student Loan Fund.

Mrs. Abbott presented the program chairman, Mrs. Margaret Watson and her co-chairman, Mrs. J. N. Conover. Mrs. Watson presented Dr. Albert Fricke and Ralph Bersell who gave a short skit, "Cut Rates" in a most humorous manner. They represented a surgeon and patient discussing the cost of an operation.

Mrs. John Gillispe, accompanied by Mrs. Francis Angel, sang three numbers, "Thine Alone," "Little Lamb," and "A Little China Figure" greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

Do You Know Your County?

Editor's Note: The question of adopting Township Form of government in Morgan county will be voted upon at the regular election Tuesday, Nov. 5. Morgan county has had Commission form of government since it was organized. The following facts regarding Commission and Township forms of government were prepared by the Morgan County League of Women Voters as a public service.

The following is offered in response to the question "How much would Township Organization cost?"

A. For comparison the county budget for the fiscal year Sept. 1, 1957 to Aug. 30, 1958, includes appropriation of $8600 as salaries for the three county commissioners.

The elected township officials, duties and salaries are listed below:

1. Township supervisor who is the general administrative officer of a town. His duties are numerous. By law he is ex-officio overseer of the poor as well as township treasurer, treasurer of the road and bridge fund, and a member of the town board of auditors.

As treasurer he receives and pays out all moneys for the town fund voted for special purposes at the town meeting, except road and bridge fund and library fund. The Corporate fund is not limited by any legal tax rate limit.

He must file an annual financial report with the town clerk prior to annual town meetings, and must periodically submit his accounts to the board of town auditors.

Assistant supervisors are elected according to the population. One assistant in towns of 4000, two assistants in towns of 6500 and one more for every additional 2500 inhabitants.

Assistant supervisors do not act as town officers but do sit on the county board, serve on committees and vote.

Salary is the same as for supervisor, $5.00 to $12 per diem.

a. Compensation of supervisors is fixed at the town meeting from $2.50 to $5.00 (1950 statute) per day for town business.

b. Per diem pay as salary on County Board is from $5 to $12 for board and/or committee meetings.

c. As member of the Board of Auditors gets an amount not to exceed $10 per meeting, amount subject to action of Town Board of Auditors.

d. As ex officio Treasurer of the Road and Bridge Fund, receives 2% of Road and Bridge Disbursements up to $2000 and 1% of all in excess of $2000.

e. As supervisor of Public Assistance the supervisor acting as relief officer receives and pays all money for public assistance and receives compensation when acting in this capacity an amount fixed by the Board of Town Auditors. This amount is paid from the town fund and a sufficient amount is levied to cover this compensation.

The Township Clerk—custodian of all records and papers of the town: he keeps the minutes of all town meetings; he must certify to the county clerk the amount of taxes to be raised for town purposes, and must deliver to the supervisor, annually certified copies of all votes for raising money.

He acts as clerk of the Board of town auditors, certifying the accounts audited to the supervisor for payment. He acts as clerk for the highway commissioner. He acts as registrar of births and deaths except in portions of the township constituting a separate registration district. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Justice of the Peace it is the duty of the town clerk to order a special election if the unexpired term is more than one year. The town clerk is paid on the same per diem basis $5.00 to $12.00 as the supervisor for town business, and on a fee basis for posting and serving notices, filing papers and recording instruments of writing unless a salary in lieu of fees is fixed by the town meeting.

The Township Assessor: becomes ex officio deputy assessor in those counties under township organization.

On or before April 1st of each year the books must be in the hands of the assessors, and by the 1st of June each year he must list and assess all real property which has become taxable and is not on the list, and also list all new or added buildings together with his valuation of them; and also note any destruction or injury or removal of any structures which might change the value, and otherwise bring his lists up to date. Each fourth year he (or his deputies) must actually view and determine as nearly as possible the value of each listing, setting down its fair cash value, and publishing same.

Personal property must be listed within the same period. Each person must be visited and each make a correct statement. With the exception of railroad property and that of certain corporations which are assessed by the State Revenue Department, all other property is assessed within the local assessing district.

Books then go to the County Assessment Supervisor by the 1st Monday in June who has authority to revise or correct assessments. On the 3rd Monday in June of each year the Board of Review must meet for the purpose of revising assessments.

The assessors are allowed to appoint deputies and assistants and determine their salary.

The Assessor in townships under 14,000 populations is paid $8 per day, not to exceed $4000 per year. In townships over 14,000 population the salary is not to exceed $6,000.

Highway Commissioner: The township highway commissioner serves for four years. His duties are to determine the taxes necessary to be levied on town property for road and bridge purposes, subject to the approval of the county board and the statutory tax rate limit (usually the maximum rate of .0625 as of 1952). (A special tax up to 16 cents may also be levied over a period not to exceed five years.) He also has charge of roads and bridges in his town (except within incorporated areas), but he may not let contracts over $500 without permission of County Superintendent of Highways.

Compensation of the township commissioner of highways is fixed by the Board of Auditors, at $8 to $12 per day under 5,000 population and $8 to $16 in townships over 5000 population.

Justices of the Peace are elected in each township and in each election precinct in non-township counties. The number varies from two to five depending on population. Their salary is determined on a fee basis.

Constables are elected in each township and precinct same as Justices of the peace. Their salary is also on a fee basis depending on services rendered.

Two justices of the peace and constables are elected for each town and one each additional for every 1,000 persons exceeding 2,000 provided no more than five are elected in each town.

Assistant Supervisors are elected according to the population. One assistant in towns of 4000, two assistants in towns of 6500 and one more for every additional 2500 inhabitants.

Assistant supervisors do not act as town officers but do sit on the county board, serve on committees and vote.

Salary is the same as for supervisor, $5.00 to $12 per diem.

Graduates Of 45 Years Ago At JHS Unite

The graduating class of 1912 at the Jacksonville High School had a reunion Saturday evening, Oct. 13, at the Dunlap hotel. It was a nostalgic occasion as many had not seen each other since the night of their graduation in the old Opera House 45 years ago.

The reading of the class prophecy was given by Dorothy Cannon Lemon and proved very amusing. A poem in memory of those passed on was read by Margaret Fernandes Corcoran. From a class of 53 members, 14 are deceased.

Attending were Miss Sophronia M. Kent, Moline, Ill., class adviser; Mrs. Nelle Hembrough Ford, Greenfield; Mrs. Winifred Priest Martin, St. Petersburg Beach, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hadden, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Spray of Wyckoff, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Ross B. Lemmon, Pleasant Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Long, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bigger, Champaign; Mrs. Sylvan Barton, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Jessie Allen Burghardt, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lemon, Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Hennepel, Mr. and Mrs. William Haden, Mrs. Nina F. Abbott and Mrs. Margaret Fernandes Corcoran, all of this city.

The class is responsible for naming the senior annual book, The Crimson Y, still going under the same name 45 years later. The group will meet again in 1962.

DeMolays And Mothers Circle To Meet Oct. 22

Presbyterian Women To Hear Guest Speakers

Four outstanding speakers will present programs on national missions Thursday, Oct. 24, at circle meetings of the Women's Association of First Presbyterian church.

Miss Marian Whitaker of the nursing staff of Illinois Hospital in Pittsfield will speak and show slides of Embudo Mission in northern New Mexico at a joint meeting of Circles 4 and 5 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Howard Stevenson on Round Road. She will also speak at the meeting of Circle 1 at the home of Mrs. F. F. McCarthy, 301 N. Church, at 8 p.m.

Miss Whitaker is a recent graduate of Passavant Hospital School of Nursing and spent last summer on an interim appointment to Embudo Hospital. She plans later to join the field force of the Presbyterian Board of National Missions.

Mrs. John Primus, who has made an extensive tour of the national mission field under the auspices of the Colorado Synod, will speak at the meeting of Circle 2 to be held at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Ritzius, 205 East Vandale. Mrs. Primus' subject will be "There Is No End."

Mrs. Martin Cohen, who has served as head of the volunteer services at the Jacksonville State hospital, will discuss another aspect of national missions at the meeting of Circle 6 to be held at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Miss Ainslie Moore, 856 West State. Her subject is "Institutions Are Their Homes."

Mrs. Earl Biggs, who will correlate all circle programs for the coming year, will give a survey of the national mission scope entitled: "Makers of the U.S.A." She will speak at the meeting of Circle 3 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Miss Violette Davis, 132 Prospect.

All women of the church are invited to attend one of these meetings and bring a guest.

Waverly Baptists Schedule Five Mission Talks

WAVERLY — The Baptist church will observe "Missionary Mobilization Week" Oct. 27 through Nov. 1.

Six different speakers will give services during the week at 7:30 each evening with a social hour following.

The speakers will be: Oct. 28, the Rev. C. Stanford Kelly from Hattie; Oct. 29, Dr. E. H. Giedt from China; Oct. 30, Mrs. A. Eastlund from Assam; Oct. 31, Mrs. Charles R. Manley from India; and Nov. 1, the Rev. George Bennett, recently returned from Latin America.

PTA To Meet

The Waverly PTA will hold its regular meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Jack Carrigan, Scout executive, will be present to give the Cub Scout charter to the Waverly Cubs, who will open the meeting with the pledge of allegiance.

Forrest Moore, grade school principal, will give a visual education film demonstration.

The social committee will be Mrs. Clarence Miles, Mrs. Adron McMahon, Mrs. Bernard Raabe, Mrs. Glendon Downing and Mrs. H. C. Duewer, Jr.

Mrs. Kepplinger Hostess

Mrs. Cecil Kepplinger was hostess to the Country Club of Household Science Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Queen and Mrs. Walter Dodd were guests.

Mrs. Kepplinger read an article and Mrs. Dora Edwards read a poem. Mrs. John Bostic and Mrs. Robert Hall each won a prize.

The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Homecoming Report

Ralph Twenhafel, general chairman of the homecoming committee, thanks the community for its cooperation in this project. He reports a profit of $1,300.

Seventy-five dollars was given as float prizes with $6 of this being returned to the fund. Half of the profit was given to the school athletic fund.

Dr. Arthur K. Baldwin Of Carrollton Named 'Doctor Of The Year'

Dr. Arthur Kirby Baldwin of Carrollton has been selected by the Illinois State Medical Society as "General Practitioner for 1958."

A plaque emblematical of the honor as "family doctor" for the year will be presented to Dr. Baldwin at the Chicago in May, it was announced jointly by Dr. Lester S. Reavley of Sterling, president of the Society, and Dr. Harold M. Camp of Monmouth, secretary.

The annual selection was made on the basis of Dr. Baldwin's 35 years' record as a country physician, his service to the medical profession, his war record and his community activities.

Dr. Baldwin was born near Berwick, Warren County, Ill., July 12, 1888, the first of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Baldwin, who had a dairy farm. He was educated in country schools and Monmouth high school, where he was valedictorian of his class.

which takes him over a radius of about 15 miles, he still has found time to devote to his community in other ways. He served as president of School Board for three years, has been president of the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Board since its founding 10 years ago, and became charter president of the Lion's Club in 1936.

He has served four times as president of the Greene County Medical Society and twice as delegate to the Illinois State Medical Society's House of Delegates. He also is a member of the American Medical Association, Illinois Society of Anesthesiologists and American Society of Anesthesiologists. He holds a National Board license to practice.

Dr. Baldwin married Miss Louise Murphy in 1922. They had first met while he was interning in Michael Reese hospital where she was a nurse before she went overseas with Base Hospital Unit No. 14. They have three children, one of whom, James, is an orthodontist in Indianapolis.

Dr. Baldwin is a member of Carrollton Masonic Lodge No. 50 the First Presbyterian church and the American Legion.

DR. ARTHUR K. BALDWIN

By that time, the youthful Baldwin had lost all desire for farming. He saw the medical needs of sparsely settled sections of the agricultural area of Western Illinois, and took a pre-medical course in the now defunct William and Vashti College at Aledo, Ill. This was followed by two years at the University of Iowa College of Medicine, Iowa City, and two years at the Rush Medical College, Chicago, from which he received his M.D. degree in 1916.

With Army in Siberia

After interning for two years at Michael Reese hospital in Chicago, Dr. Baldwin enlisted in the U.S. Army. He was in training at Camp Jackson, S.C., when the armistice was declared. He then volunteered for service in the American Occupational Force and moved as a first lieutenant with the army of occupation through Siberia in 1919 and 1920.

Upon his return to the United States, he took up the practice of medicine in Elmwood, Peoria county. Four years later he moved to Carrollton, where he has been in practice ever since.

Dr. Baldwin encountered the usual difficulties of a physician in a community without a hospital, but he met the challenge and provided medical care which won him the approbation of his patients and his community.

Helps Organize Boyd Hospital

In 1941, he, Dr. Arthur D. Wilson and Dr. Paul A. Dailey organized the 20-bed Thomas H. Boyd Memorial hospital at Carrollton. This was doubled in size by an addition in 1950. Another 10 beds is being added by an obstetrical and gynecological unit now in construction.

Dr. Baldwin, who has served as president of the hospital's board of trustees since its inception, saw the need for modern anesthesiology there. Accordingly, in 1940 he sacrificed a busy practice to take three courses over three years in that field at Cook County hospital, Chicago.

He serves as anesthetist at nearly all operations at the hospital. To date he has administered in more than 4,300 cases without anesthetic death.

From 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Dr. Baldwin's usual work day starts at 8 o'clock in the morning at his hospital. It ends about 10 o'clock at night in his office. He is subject to call at all hours.

With his busy medical practice,

Dr. Seybold To Address Supper Meeting Oct. 24

Dr. Ethel Seybold, English instructor at Illinois College, will be the speaker at the fall fellowship supper of the Jacksonville branch of AAUW to be held Thursday evening, Oct. 24, at 6:30 o'clock at Grace Methodist church. Her subject is "Transcendental Traces in 19th Century Jacksonville."

In connection with her talk, Dr. Deckard Ritter, professor of rhetoric at Illinois College, has arranged an interesting exhibit at the college library. All AAUW members are urged to see this exhibit and take a friend along.

New members of AAUW will be honored at the dinner meeting.

Mrs. John Conant, membership chairman, invites anyone interested in becoming a member to contact her.

Reservations for the dinner must be made by Oct. 22 with Mrs. Paul Keller, CH 5-7796. Any members not contacted are asked to call Mrs. Keller. Board members have been unable to reach many persons.

Lyceum movie tickets will be distributed by Mrs. Louis Foster, of the fellowship department. This year seven tickets will be sold for six movies so that tickets may be used interchangeably.

Mrs. P. J. Davidmeyer is program chairman and Miss Edna Osborne will have charge of table settings. Mrs. J. Pryor Bossarte, president of the local branch, will preside at the meeting.

Martha Circle Meets At Home Of Mrs. William Deem

CIRCLE Martha of the Grace Methodist Church met Wednesday, October 16, at the home of Mrs. William C. Deem. Mrs. Gerald Cassens and Mrs. John Reeves were assistant hostesses. Fifteen members were present and Mrs. Edward Wilson, Miss Mary Lou Huck, Mrs. Charles Williamson and Mrs. Oliver Buck were guests.

Devotions were given by Mrs. George Thayer. They began with the Lord's Prayer and an article entitled "Where The World Prays." The business session was conducted by Mrs. John M. Marshall, vice-chairman. Reports were given on the program of the bazaar and the pledges for the year.

A very interesting program, "Recruitment Of Leaders In Missionary Work," was given by Mrs. Theodore Piecze.

A social hour followed during which Mrs. Deem, formerly Mrs. Betty Kennett, was presented gifts by the circle members.

TENSION ADVANCES GRAIN PRICES

CHICAGO (AP) — Tension created by the cold war between Syria and Turkey kept the grain trade on edge most of this week. The possibility of a shooting war between the two middle-east nations, with Russia on the side of Syria and Turkey kept the grain trade on edge most of this week.

Principal concern among grain traders was the possibility that a conflict in the middle-east might spark a third world war.

This concern was reflected in higher price trends for grains and soybeans on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday as the Turkish-Syrian crisis intensified. On Friday, however, the situation had eased slightly and the markets turned downward.

As a result, new-style wheat ended the week 1 to 2 cents a bushel higher than Friday a week ago. Corn was up 1½ to 2 cents, oats were 4½ lower to 7½ cents, rye advanced 3 to 3½ cents, soybeans gained 3½ to 4 cents, and lard was 2 cents lower to 18 cents higher per hundred pounds.

Aside from the middle-east crisis, news affecting grains was rather scarce during the week. Export demand for wheat was confined to around 1,000,000 bushels of western white wheat to Japan and 700,000 bushels of mixed wheat to Poland.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The Syrian-Turkish crisis unsettled the stock market this week and prices were jolted back on their heels once more.

But the losses were nothing like what they were in the prior week when news of Russia's space satellite was predominant.

This week it was mainly a case of war jitters about the Middle East, a region of the world which has become a familiar spook on Wall Street.

Both this week and last, the nature of the news was such as to build hopes for more spending on aircrafts and missiles. As a result, stocks representing those industries did rather well in the midst of a nervous retreat for the list as a whole.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined $2.17 to $156.70, its lowest since March 22, 1955.

The quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange fell an estimated 3 1-3 billion dollars this week, based on the decline in the average. This compared with an estimated 10 billion dollar loss the week before.

Although the news at the start of the week was far from inspiring to traders, the market snapped back from its terrific beating of the previous week and rallied for two straight days.

The five most active issues this week on the New York Stock Exchange were:

North American Aviation, up 1 ½ at 26 1-4 on 284,300 shares; Bethlehem Steel, off 1 ¼ at 39 3-4; Standard Oil (New Jersey), off 3 ½ at 52 5-8; General Dynamics, up 7-8 at 52; and Boeing, 70 1-2 at 32 1-4.

Girl Scouts To Observe United Nations Week

October 20-27 is United Nations Week, and by Presidential Proclamation, October 24 is United Nations Day. Girl Scouts are a growing force for freedom and peace and therefore observe United Nations Week through activities in the field of International Friendship and by reaffirming belief in the Fourth Girl Scout Law, "A Girl Scout is a Friend to All and a Sister to Every Other Girl Scout." Our World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts includes thirty-five countries, and therefore membership in this organization will encourage tolerance and understanding among our future citizens. The Girl Scout Office has many flags for loan to leaders for flag, ceremonies or international observances; there are two large flags with standards, our flag of the United States of America and the World Association Flag, as well as the Intermediate Girl Scout Flag and the Brownie Flag, along with a small set of flags of each country in the World Association.

So many new leaders are signing up to help Brownies organize troops that the Girl Scout Office is offering another Brownie leader training course on October 24, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. It is certainly encouraging when so many busy mothers volunteer their time for Scouting. It is evidence that adults believe in the principles of Scouting and what they can do for their daughters.

Our community offers many advantages to Girl Scout Troops, one of these being the historical significance of our D.A.R. home in Duncan Park. Girl Scout Troops may make arrangements through Mrs. George Drennan, CH 5-7523, to visit the D.A.R. home and become acquainted with the background and significance of it through a talk by one of the members of the D.A.R. Troop Organizers in the various schools might make this a Scout school project, since there is a large room that can be used as a meeting place and refreshments that require no cooking could be served.

All Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout Troops in Carrollton marched in the Homecoming Parade on Friday, Oct. 18, and it is gratifying to see how proud these girls are to belong to Girl Scouts and participate in community activities.

Troop No. 14, Intermediate Girl Scouts of Carrollton, had a fly-up ceremony at the City Park recently. They were given their Brownie Wings by their former leader, Mrs. Lela Thien, and then given their Girl Scout pins by the new leader, Mrs. Hazel Wagner. Songs and refreshments followed the ceremony, and seven new girls have been welcomed into the troop.

Mrs. Forest B. Smith of Houston, Tex., will spend several weeks here visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beck. She will also visit her sisters-in-law, Mrs. C. O. Bulger and Mrs. K. T. Smith, here and her cousin, Mrs. Madeline Dickey, in Carrollton.

Class and department promotions were held in the Methodist Sunday School Sunday. David and Larry Ford received 7 year pins; Karen Lynn, Janine Barton, Eason Rives and Johnny Barton, six year pins; Susan Burnham, Evelyn Morrow, Elise Frazier, Tommy and Jerry Sanson, Jackie Meng and Vince Barton, five year pins; Patty Thayer, Martha Ray Gallagher, Russell Cole, Charles Morrow, Ruth Cole, Harry Cole, Susan Ford and Bill Clyde Cole, four year pins; Marilyn Spencer, Bonnie Langley, Dennis Cole, Jane Hodapp, Joelen Scott, three year pins; Bonita Hamilton, Jimmie Cole, Johnny Koehn, Tonny Ford, Marcia and Danny Bowmen, Shelly and Terry Shields, Mike and Anna Gaither, 2 year pins; Beverly and Richard Gooden, Donald Ford, Vince Meng, Debbie Burnham, Lora Shields, Johny Scott and Patty Sanson, pins for 6 months attendance. The attendance pins will be awarded April 1.

Mrs. Willard Pembroke has left for a visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, T. S. and Mrs. A. B. Kessey, in San Antonio, Tex.

Mrs. Virgil A. Bauer is recuperating at the Alton Memorial Hospital from major surgery.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Middleton and Leigh Ann have returned to their home in Des Moines, Iowa, after visiting here with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Midleton.

Several leaders report that their autumn outings with Girl Scouts have been successful because of well laid plans, such as letting the group decide where to go, what to do; divide into committees to take care of permissions for the meeting place and objective, what to do in preparation and on arrival; what to eat; what equipment to take; what to wear; and a careful plan of adult responsibilities, such as enough adults along, safety of water supply, permission to build a fire and to use property.

UCLA TOPPLES OREGON STATE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA blasted Oregon State from the ranks of the nation's unbeaten teams 26-7 Saturday.

Oregon State went into the game ranked No. 7 in the weekly ratings and was solidly favored to win its fifth straight game.

The Auxiliary members are making a drive for articles to be repaired, painted and re-upholstered for the "Odds and Ends" sale sponsored annually by the American Legion, and the date of the sale will be announced later.

The 1957-58 president, Mrs. Kenneth Woodkirk, has named the following chairman: Americanism, Mrs. Charles Barton; loan fund and education of orphans, Mrs. Maurice L. Melvin; Girls State, Mrs. Mrs. Neil; finance, Mrs. William Meng; junior activities, Mrs. C. V. Nash; civil defense and veterans craft, Mrs. John McCarthy; community service, Mrs. Charles Wayne Finley; past presidents parley, Mrs. Richard Cole; publicity, Mrs. Leroy Rivers; Gold Star Mothers, Miss Mildred Cook; legislation, Mrs. Clarence Tucey; membership, Mrs. Gary Melvin; music, Mrs. Warren Cook; rehabilitation, Mrs. Howard Houlette; national security, Mrs. James Nash; Pan-American, Mrs. Frank Ford and poppy sale, Mrs. Francis Griffin.

STANFORD WINS 1ST GAME OF SEASON

SEATTLE (AP) — Stanford's Indians handed Washington its fourth straight defeat Saturday, and won its first Pacific Coast Conference football game 21-14 before a disappointed crowd of 36,000.

Gary Van Galder who was sidelined with an injury last week when Stanford lost to Washington State, came off the bench and punched on the second quarter fumble that turned the tide for Stanford.

Coach Red Sanders' Bruins put another 49-yard thrust in the second quarter for a 13-0 half-time lead, and that, to all intents, was the icing on the cake.

The 1957-58 president, Mrs. Kenneth Woodkirk, has named the following chairman: Americanism, Mrs. Charles Barton; loan fund and education of orphans, Mrs. Maurice L. Melvin; Girls State, Mrs. Mrs. Neil; finance, Mrs. William Meng; junior activities, Mrs. C. V. Nash; civil defense and veterans craft, Mrs. John McCarthy; community service, Mrs. Charles Wayne Finley; past presidents parley, Mrs. Richard Cole; publicity, Mrs. Leroy Rivers; Gold Star Mothers, Miss Mildred Cook; legislation, Mrs. Clarence Tucey; membership, Mrs. Gary Melvin; music, Mrs. Warren Cook; rehabilitation, Mrs. Howard Houlette; national security, Mrs. James Nash; Pan-American, Mrs. Frank Ford and poppy sale, Mrs. Francis Griffin.

PEARCUMBERS

DURANT, Okla. (AP) — No one believed J. T. Bruce when he told friends he was picking cucumbers from his pear tree.

They went to see, and sure enough, he was. A closer inspection showed the cucumber vines had climbed up the tree and fruit.

That's where it stood midway in the period when Washington fumbled on its 16. Van Galder came up with the ball and on the sixth play Douglas squeezed the last few inches for the tie-breaking touchdown.

Fighting Illini Fashion Annual Homecoming Upset

Purdue Shocks Michigan State Squad, 20-13

Boilermakers Knock Off Nation's No. 1 Collegiate Team

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Injured, ailing and underrated Purdue pulled a stunning football upset Saturday by knocking off Michigan State, the top rated collegiate team in the nation, by a convincing 20-13 score.

The MSU Spartans were a 21 point favorite going into the game and were expected to run all over the bruised Boilermakers who had the added handicap of having some key men missing because of the flu bug.

But 18-year-old Ross Fichtner, a green-as-green sophomore quarterback, had different ideas and directed his Purdue crew to the upset with all the poise of a pro veteran.

Buckeyes Roll Over Hapless Indiana, 56-0

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's powerful Buckeyes smothered underrated and inept Indiana under an eight-touchdown barrage Saturday as they racked up their second straight Western Conference victory, 56-0.

The ground-eating Ohioans converted four fumbles into touchdowns and intercepted five Hoosier passes to squelch all Indiana's scoring attempts. The score was the largest turned in by Woody Hayes' coached team in his seven years here. And it was reminiscent of the "shut the gates of mercy" regime of the late Francis W. Schmidt here in the late '30s.

Hayes flooded the field with 57 players, but all the combinations scored as the Bucks went for two touchdowns in the opening period, three in the second, two in the third and one in the fourth, and added a 23-yard field goal to add to the rout.

The eight Buckeye touchdowns came on drives varying from 9 to 56 yards. They covered 371 yards and required only 52 plays. The Bucks did not throw a pass on the first four scoring drives.

Indiana's unique "side-saddle T" offense gained only 24 yards in 26 rushes, while the Bucks were piling up 392 on the ground. The Hoosiers completed 9 of 21 passes for 122 yards, and Ohio connected on 8 of 13 for 66 yards. That gave the Bucks a total gain advantage of 458 to 146.

It was Indiana's fourth straight defeat and the Hoosiers have been outscored 183 to 7.

A crowd of 78,348 witnessed the one-sided contest, the first time in 18 games that the gate has fallen under 80,000.

Auburn Sneaks By Georgia Tech, 3-0

ATLANTA (AP) — Auburn, a lumbering, punchless giant on offense but the nation's best on defense, won its big one Saturday, using its terrific line and Billy Atkins' field goal to beat Georgia Tech 3-0.

The Tigers, ninth ranked nationally in the Associated Press football poll, has been disappointing all season on offense—but with their stingy defense they don't need to score often.

The victory over Tech was another major hurdle for unbeaten Auburn, which whipped Tennessee 14-0 and Kentucky 6-0, and gave its Southeastern Conference title hopes a tremendous boost.

Auburn's defense, spearheaded by ends Jimmy Phillips and Jerry Wilson and center Jackie Burkett, twice stopped Tech inside the last period. Six minutes later he turned his right end for four and the other Vol touchdown.

The win left Tennessee with a 8-1 mark in SEC competition and kept alive the Vols' faint hopes for retaining the conference title.

Outplayed in the first half, Gordon got the Tennessee attack rolling quickly in the second half. The winners drove 60 yards midway of the third period only to have Gordon's fourth down plunge stopped a foot away.

TRAINER LOSES SOME EQUIPMENT

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Marion Clark, trainer for the Sioux City Soos of the Western League, got his pants pocket caught on the door handle of a passing car. The embarrassed Clark, clad only in shorts, hastily waved the woman driver on after assuring her he was unharmed.

DETROIT HAS FOUR EX-KNICKERBOCKERS

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons, who have replaced Fort Wayne in the National Basketball Assn., have four former members of the New York Knickerbockers. They are Dick McGuire, veteran of eight seasons with the Knicks; Harry Gallatin, Sweetwater Clifton and Gene Shue.

The referee grabbed the frisky intruder and he—or she—was carried off the field to the cheers of a huge homecoming crowd.

ILLINI'S 12TH MAN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — There was a new twist to the oft-told dog-on-the-field incident Saturday as Illinois' football team was beating Minnesota 34-13.

The dog not only ran onto the field but got into the thick of one of the plays—a third-quarter Illinois line buck.

When officials worked their way through the player pileup, they found a big brown pooh at the bottom.

The referee grabbed the frisky intruder and he—or she—was carried off the field to the cheers of a huge homecoming crowd.

Haller's Passing Paces Illinois To 34-13 Rout Over Rated Gophers

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — The slithering running of halfback Bob Mitchell, hospitalized earlier in the week with a temperature, touched off an Illinois homecoming explosion Saturday that blew apart Minnesota, the nation's fourth-ranking team 34-13.

While 69,619 fans cheered the two-touchdown underdog Illini and millions of others watched on the national TV hookup, Coach Ray Elliot's upset-minded team, deluged the Gophers, 21-0, by half-time, and maintained the pressure to hand them first defeat in four starts.

In gaining its second triumph, in four games, Illinois duplicated its homecoming ambush of last year when it trounced Michigan State, then the nation's No. 1 team, 20-13, in one of the season's biggest surprises.

Mitchell, a 180-pound senior from Hot Springs, Ark., who won all-Big Ten honors as a sophomore and was hobbled with injuries in 1956, time and again split the big Minnesota defenses with his eel-like runs.

And while the Gophers were trying to contend with Mitchell's slipperiness, a 205-pound junior halfback from Chicago, Jack Deveaux, riddled them down the middle and quarterback Tom Haller, junior from Lockport, Ill., harassed them with passes.

Deveaux scored twice in the first quarter. He ran back a punt 30 yards midway in the period to fuse an 83-yard touchdown drive in 12 plays. Haller's jump pass set up 10 yards to Bob Delaney and Deveaux's eventual 1-yard scoring blast.

Four minutes later, Mitchell recovered halfback Bill Martin's fumble on the Gopher 28. Mitchell wormed his way 18 yards on the next play. Then Deveaux drilled over from the 10.

At the outset of the second quarter, Mitchell's 1-yard touchdown smash ended a 53-yard Illinois thrust in 9 plays. Mitchell's mercurial scamper of 16 and 9 yards sent the props.

The Illini kept it up in the third quarter, scoring again in the first seven minutes on a 69-yard frolic in 14 downs that included 4 Haller aerials good for 62 yards. Haller's 23-yard pitch to Capt. Dale Smith made way for Smith's final 2-yard touchdown plunge.

Five minutes later, Mitchell scored again on the game's most sensational pass play. A poor 18-yard punt by the Gophers set Illinois in motion on the Minnesota 47. Mitchell's running carried to the 21, but a holding infraction set the Illini back. Then Haller found end Ron Hill on the clear near the sideline. He rifled the ball to Hill on the 5. Hill juked it momentarily, then lunged it over the goal line.

Against second and third strings, Minnesota struck through the air for two touchdowns in the last quarter. Bobby Cox passed 16 yards to Dave Lindblom for the first TD. Then, third string quarterback Jim Reese, hit Jerry Friend with a 14-yard scoring toss.

Maryland Upsets N. Carolina, 21-7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Maryland upset North Carolina 21-7 Saturday, giving Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain a much more thrilling show of American football than had been expected.

North Carolina was favored by two touchdowns but an 81-yard touchdown run by Ted Kershner broke a 7-7 tie in the last quarter and then Maryland added a third touchdown on a 67-yard march down the field.

The capacity crowd of 43,000 went wild in the last half to provide a background of enthusiasm that appeared to delight the Queen and Prince Philip.

The game, selected for viewing by the royal visitors as being typical of American football, started tamely enough with the officials carrying the ball as much as the players. This kept the governor of Maryland, Theodore R. McKeldin, and the President of the University of Maryland, Wilson Elkins, very busy explaining things to the queen.

Army Smashes Pittsburgh, 29-13

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Army shook Pete Dawkins loose twice in the final quarter Saturday and scored a smashing 29-13 victory over Pitt's Panthers in a game that had been expected to settle the unofficial eastern football championship.

The contract runs for only one year in keeping with a policy set by Cairns.

There was no announcement regarding the status of the Braves' coaching staff or Connie Ryan, Johnny Riddle, Charlie Root and Bob Keely. But, Quinn said, there will be a statement on them "within the next two weeks."

This was taken as an indication that some coaching changes might be in the works.

There have been rumors that Ryan, for one, will not be around next spring. He and Haney did not see eye to eye during the last campaign.

Root, a pitching great when he was with the Chicago Cubs, is said to be thinking of retiring from the game. He is 58.

Haney succeeded Charlie Grimm as manager of the Braves with the club in fifth place on June 17, 1956. The team immediately ran off 11 consecutive victories and appeared to be a shoo-in for the pennant. A late season foul cost them the flag the last five years.

Duke Clobbers Wake Forest, 34-7

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Unbeaten Duke, warming up for next week's game with unbeaten North Carolina State, exploded for 34 points in the first half and carried off 21-7 victory over winless Wake Forest in an Atlantic Coast Conference football game.

Each team scored once in the first half. Army got a quick one after a early break on a punt that touched a Pitt player. Pitt matched it on a 37-yard Tonicle to Dick Scherer pass after pushing the Army line all over the field but being stopped twice at the 10-yard line.

Jacks, Peoria Manual, Eldorado, Champaign Continue Undefeated

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Unbeaten Peoria, Champaign, Jacksonville and Peoria Manual have scored more than 46 points in five games and been scored on only in two.

Casey's 32-0 loss to Newton made the latter look the best in the East Central League where Effingham, the defending champion, beat St. Elmo, 34-0.

Elgin's 25-0 whipping of West Aurora brought the Elgin eleven to the top of contention in the Big Eight.

Madison, the only unbeaten team in the southwestern area, snacked into Edwardsburg, 18-12 in a sixth straight victory.

Ottawa annexed No. 6, a 45-21 rout of Sterling's winless Warriors.

Peoria Woodruff's sixth success came Thursday, as Peoria Limoneos bowed 45-0.

Watseka, unbeaten in five games, and Onarga, with four wins in a row, came through new tests. Watseka shut out Hooper 26-0 and Onarga crushed Peoria City 33-0.

Centralia skinned by Salem 7-6, and Herrin smothered Harrisburg 41-6.

Anna-Jonesboro and Murphyboro picked up fifth victories too. Anna whipped Metropolis 36-12 and Murphyboro topped Springfield 45-6. Jack-

PERFECT SERIES FOR YALE

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—When Yale beat Connecticut, 27-0, it marked the ninth time in as many football games that the Elis have humbled the Huskies.

"We can't expect to win," Coach Bob Ingalls told Yale coach Jordan Olivar before the game. "After all, you have your son. We have your daughter but she doesn't play football."

Olivar's son, Harry, is a sophomore tackle for Yale. Twin sister Harriet is a sophomore at Connecticut.

Jacksonville scored another crushing victory, this time over Springfield 45-6. Jack-

Kills Six Point Buck With Arrow Near Meredosia

Robert Stock, young Cass county farmer, has bagged his first deer with bow and arrow.

The kill was made on Meredosia Island in the Illinois river, where Stock had been keeping his eyes on two bucks and two does, which inhabited the island for some time.

On his third try at stalking a deer, the hunter sighted a six-point buck at 50 yards. Letting drive with an arrow, Stock hit the buck in the chest and felled him. A second arrow was then used.

Stock bought a bow (with 50 pound draw) in September and started practicing with it. He is the first hunter in this section of the state to bag a deer under the new law, which permits bow and arrow hunting in advance of the firearms season.

Dr. Cooper's Father Dies At Lincoln

Walter S. Cooper, father of Dr. T. R. Cooper of this city, died in a nursing home at Lincoln Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Cooper was born May 24, 1878. He was preceded in death by his wife Aug. 3, 1957.

Survivors include five children, Walter G. Cooper of South Bend, Ind., Mrs. Richard A. Carrington of Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Caroline Cooper of Lincoln, Milton Cooper of Berkeley, Calif., and Dr. Cooper of Jacksonville. Two granddaughters, Mrs. Floyd Engel of Jacksonville and Mrs. Fred Erickson of Lake Forest, Ill., also survive.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

'QUEEN MARY ANN' REIGNS OVER J.H.S. HOMECOMING

Football captain Stanley Caine stands with homecoming Queen Mary Ann Mitchell at the dance ending Jacksonville high school homecoming activities Friday evening.

Miss Janet Elliott, president of the Jettes, placed the crown on the queen before hundreds of spectators in the J.H.S. gymnasium.

All of the varsity football players entered with members of the Jettes or with cheerleaders as escorts. Miss Mitchell was escorted to the throne by Stanley Caine, Captain of the Crimson team.

During the ceremony Miss Pat Apitis representing the Student Council presented Her Highness a silver charm bracelet.

Boots Brennan and his orchestra played for the dance.

Ninalee Young Marries William Jefferson In Scott

WINCHESTER—Miss Ninalee Young and William Jefferson were united in marriage Saturday, October 19, at 8 p.m. at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Nina Young on N. Main St. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Sealock before an improvised altar decorated with palms and baskets of yellow mums, in the presence of the families.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patrick with whom she had made her home. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jefferson of St. Louis Saturday. The women took special gifts of jellies and jams to the orphanage which they support.

Mrs. Lucien Nash went to Georgia over the weekend to see her husband, who is stationed there with the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lawrence of Tacoma, Wash., are here visiting their son, Bob Lawrence and family.

The young couple was attended by Mrs. Riley Webb and Glen Prough of Carrollton.

For her wedding the bride chose a street length gown of autumn green velvet, cut on Princess lines, with long tight fitting sleeves. She wore a head band fashioned of russet velvet leaves. Her only jewelry was a cameo broach which belonged to her paternal great grandmother. An orchid corsage completed her costume.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McElroy of Oak Park have been guests of Mrs. Cornelia Winger this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Saffer, Miss Nellie Roosa, Mrs. Ray Nelson, Mrs. Jess Buttsback and Mrs. Mildred French accompanied a group of Lynnville church members to the Christian Orphan's Home in St. Louis Saturday. The women took special gifts of jellies and jams to the orphanage which they support.

1957 CORN CROPS SMALLER THAN 1956

Corn harvest is in full swing. The crop is not so big as that of last year, but supplies of other feed grains and old corn are larger.

H. G. Russell, extension live-stock specialist at the college, will chairmen the morning session of the program starting at 11 o'clock in the Stock Pavilion. G. E. Mitchell and W. W. Albert, beef staff members at the college, will discuss effect of time of stilbestrol implants with Synovex comparisons, replacement value of oats in rations fed to steers on grass and comparison of single versus mixed protein supplements.

Carroll Louis B. Howard of the College of Agriculture will welcome the guests. Lunch will be served in the Stock Pavilion by members of the Hoof and Horn Club.

Principal Speaker

Doyle Chambers, professor of animal breeding at Oklahoma State University, will headline the afternoon session with a talk on performance testing. Other reports will include pelleting roughages and complete rations for beef cattle by R. J. Webb, superintendent of Dixon Springs Experiment Station, and progress on the "all-in-one" silage studies by Neumann. L. H. Simerl, extension farm economist at the college, will give his annual outlook report on the beef cattle situation.

Adjournment is scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

THE WRONG KIND OF CLOTHING CAN KILL YOU

You've heard the saying, "Clothes make the man." But not only can clothes make the man—they can also be the cause of his death.

The records show that the wrong kind of clothes is often responsible for accidents around corn-harvesting machinery, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

A man running a corn picker should wear snug-fitting but comfortable clothes that won't catch on moving gears, belts, shafts and other machinery parts. Even a smooth shaft can grab a torn pants leg, beginning with one little thread, and then gobble up the rest of the pants—with the victim in them.

Watch the kind of gloves you wear, too. No gloves at all are safest, but if the weather makes them necessary, they should be cloth without floppy gauntlets. Steer away from double-thumb gloves especially. Leather gloves are not as safe as cloth gloves because they won't pull off as easily if they become caught. If you've been putting off having some of your work clothes mended, do it now before corn-picking season begins. It may prevent an injury or perhaps save your life.

ASHLAND HEN LAYS KING-SIZED EGG

Lucy DeGroot of rural route 1, Ashland, was wondering last week how many shots of Asian flu vaccine could be made from a king-sized egg laid by one of her six-months-old New Hampshire Red hens.

The egg weighed six ounces, four times as much as a standard egg. Other vital statistics were: 9 inches on the oval and 7½ inches in circumference.

Lucy DeGroot's young cluckers have been doing big business this year. During the past week she opened four jumbo eggs, each with three yolks.

A TOUR OF A WATERSHED PROJECT

Pilot Project In Brown May Be Federalized

THIS IS a general view of the soil conservation watershed tour held west of Meredosia, where preliminary work on a cooperative watershed project is in progress.

CONGRESSMAN SID SIMPSON of Carrollton and Rae Cox of Mt. Sterling, chairman of the Republican county committee of Brown County, are shown eating their meal with their trays atop the hood of a 4,000 acre project that will hold back the water, keep Hambaugh and Martin creeks from overflowing and keep the waterborne soil out of the drainage ditches in the Illinois valley lowlands. If this can be achieved it will bring rich returns to both the farmers of hillside land and those cultivating the rich bottomlands.

At least 400 people came out for the day, including high school and junior high students. They boarded rubber-tired wagons pulled by tractors and sat on bales of straw as they viewed the miles of terraces, waterways, tree planting sites, ponds and other work that is being done to slow down the runoff during hard rains.

Now and then the wagons paused as specialists explained how the various installations would work; how certain fields would be left in permanent pasture or turned into woodlands, and how other sloping fields could be used in a limited rotation that would furnish a cash crop once or twice in each five years.

GOVERNMENT MAY HELP

This preliminary work is being done by the owners of the land under the supervision of the SCS. Later and more costly installations will be paid for by the federal government under the national watershed act, providing the plans are approved by the Department of Agriculture. These plans will be forwarded to Washington soon and it is possible that if they are approved the other phases of the project will be completed next year.

The men in primary charge of the demonstration were Farm Advisor Arthur W. Haas, Soil Technicians Gene Nichols and Dale Tongue and Harold Hoelscher, president of the Brown County Soil Conservation district.

Specialist Sees Little Change In Bean Price

A University of Illinois agricultural economist forecast last week that soybean prices would show no great changes during the coming year.

T. A. Hieronymus believes the record supply means that prices will be tied quite closely to the government loan.

So prices can neither go down nor up very much.

Hieronymus points out that the October government crop estimate is 487 million bushels. Last year 456 million bushels were produced, but this figure may be revised downward. With an early harvest last year, the 1956 crop was used over a 12-month period. This year, with a late harvest, the crop needs to last only about 11 months.

After deducting for seed, waste and export, Hieronymus estimates that about 367 million bushels will be available for crush and carryover. If the market is to show any firmness at all this year, the carryover must be cut to 10 million bushels, leaving a crush of 357 million bushels. The crush this past year was about 315 million bushels.

In order to get this larger supply of soybeans crushed, the economist estimates that processors will need a crushing margin of about 22 cents. Adding this to the loan price of $2.18 in central Illinois and a 5-cent elevator margin gives $2.45 as the gross value of soybean products. This would be equal to $47 a ton for meal and 121 cents a pound for oil. These prices seem extremely unlikely this year if the entire soybean crop is to be used.

So it looks like a substantial carryover of soybeans next year. And this carryover will probably be owned by CCC. Farmers probably will put enough soybeans into loan to move the price up to the loan.

Under similar situations in the past, the season's price peak has occurred early in the marketing year. Any time prices move above the loan during the coming year, large selling by farmers is likely. Hieronymus concludes.

SEED CORN, PICKER DEMONSTRATION

All interested persons are invited to a seed corn variety and corn picker demonstration which will be held Tuesday in Macoupin county. Nine seed corn companies and machinery dealers are sponsoring the event, which will be held five miles west of Palmyra on the blacktop road and a quarter-mile south.

Several makes of pickers and picker-shellers will be on trial and there will be a dryer on hand.

The demonstration will begin at 10 a.m.

Sound-on-film movies were perfected at the University of Illinois and first demonstrated there in 1921.

Cheaper Food Prices, More Cash To Farms—A Subject Of Study

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Should the government shift to the broad use of payments to bolster farm income, one of the results would be a big increase in the supply of beef, pork, lamb and chickens at grocery stores.

Along with this increase would be a sharp drop in prices.

The prospect of such a change in the meat situation was painted by the Agriculture Department in a recent study on the costs and effects of a payment program of aiding farmers.

The department said use of payments across the board for most farm products would cost taxpayers between 7 and 10 billion dollars a year compared with about two billion dollars for present farm price support programs.

Under the present program, the government seeks to remove some of the surplus supplies of farm products from markets so that they will not depress producer prices.

Government To Pay Difference

Under the payment plan, the demand for feed would be so strong that livestock producers would turn to wheat to help meet their needs. The result would be, it said, a speedy depletion of the market prices and the farm price goal of the program would be made up to producers in the form of payments.

The payment plan first was advanced as a major farm aid device in 1949 by the then Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan. Congress did not adopt it.

Nevertheless, it may attract strong support in the next session of Congress. Secretary of Agriculture Benson has called for new programs, saying that present ones will not solve farm problems of overproduction and low income.

Opposed By Administration

However, Benson has declared that the Eisenhower administration opposes the payment method.

The department study on effects of the payment plan would have widespread effects on the production of cotton. With a return of 90 per cent of parity promised, farmers would be encouraged to expand cotton production. The cotton support price is now 77 per cent of parity level.

However, the costs of supporting returns on wheat and feed grains may be borne, in effect, by the payments on livestock. The department figures that under a payment program costing 10 billion dollars a year, fully seven billion dollars or 65 per cent would go to producers of live stock.

Cotton Increase Seen

The department believes that the payment program would have widespread effects on the production of cotton. With a return of 90 per cent of parity promised, farmers would be encouraged to expand cotton production. The cotton support price is now 77 per cent of parity level.

Since the market price would fall to low levels under the impact of increased production, the expansion of both domestic consumption and exports would be large. Under a program of unlimited production, the cotton payments would be close to 1½ billion dollars a year, the department estimates.

Feed Grains Cheap Now

Another effect of the payment plan, the department said, would be a marked increase in the demand for livestock feed grains. At present, there is a surplus of such grains, with prices averaging less than 70 per cent of parity.

"Under the program of unlimited payments, the expansion of livestock would generate a demand for feed grain strong enough to lift feed grain prices close to or above the supports," the report said.

This demand, in turn, would be expected to stimulate further expansion in the acreage and production of corn.

Would Feed Wheat?

In fact, the department said, the demand for feed would be so strong that livestock producers would turn to wheat to help meet their needs. The result would be, it said, a speedy depletion of the present wheat surplus.

The department figures that in the initial years of the program there would be no need to make payment to farmers on wheat and feed grains because the livestock feeding demand would be such as to hold prices up to the 90 per cent of parity level.

However, the costs of supporting returns on wheat and feed grains may be borne, in effect, by the payments on livestock. The department figures that under a payment program costing 10 billion dollars a year, fully seven billion dollars or 65 per cent would go to producers of live stock.

Quality Upheeld

A reported shortage of feeder cattle, a big feed grain supply and an outlook for continued strong fat cattle prices all contributed to satisfactory sales. But another important factor, a credit to the livestock producers, was the high quality of cattle offered. The Egyptian Livestock Association insured the quality of the sale by employing two cattle-wise, eagle-eyed judges who inspected each animal as it was unloaded. Thus

Nevertheless, it may attract strong support in the next session of Congress. Secretary of Agriculture Benson has called for new programs, saying that present ones will not solve farm problems of overproduction and low income.

Comparing The Cost Of County Government Favors Our Commission System

Studies made several years ago for the Illinois Tax Commission for the purpose of comparing the costs of county government under the commission form and under the township form in every instance demonstrated clearly that the commission type, such as we now have in Morgan county, is far more economical.

Four counties in this immediate area operating under the commission form, Morgan, Scott, Menard and Calhoun, with a combined population of 61,388, were compared with Adams county, operating under the township supervisor form of government and having a population of 62,784. The average per capita cost of county government in the commission counties was $3.49. In Adams county under supervisors it was $4.59. The average governmental cost per square mile in counties like Morgan was found to be only $153.37 as contrasted with a cost in Adams county of $342.41 per square mile.

A similar study comparing Menard county under commission government with its neighboring counties of Cass, Mason and Logan, all having township supervisors, brought forth the conclusion that the latter three counties could effect a combined annual saving of approximately $100,000 if they could operate as cheaply on a per capita basis as Menard county.

In another section of the study costs in Morgan county were compared with those in four counties under township organization, Putnam, Bureau, LaSalle and Grundy. The average per capita cost in the township counties was $5.76 as compared with $3.79 here.

While these figures are now outdated by inflation, the principle remains the same. Township county government under many supervisors and other township officials is far more expensive than the county commission form of government we now have.

Taxpayers who are alert to the importance of economy in local government will vote "NO" at the election November 5th on the proposition to change our county system.

Sputnik And The Arms Race

The Russians would be totally out of character if they did not attempt to gain maximum propaganda value from their success in probing outer space. They are crowing loudly, and showing no hint of humility in the face of the great natural forces involved.

The worst aspect of this is that the Kremlin obviously seeks to capitalize on its scientific triumph to bulldoze the free world into accepting its disarmament proposals.

Using "Sputnik" as a kind of club, the Russians want to frighten tremulous neutrals and even sturdy anti-Communist peoples into submission.

To combat this effort gives to the United States and its firm friends perhaps the most hazardous diplomatic task they have had since the close of World War II.

For what has dazzled the world is not only that the Soviet Union has catapulted into space a spinning object able to resist the pull of the earth. It is that by doing so they have revealed capabilities heretofore merely claimed or hinted at.

But we must not forget, and we must not allow our friends and the neutral nations to forget, that the United States has not—as a corollary of Russian success—lost its own capabilities.

We still have a huge and varied arsenal of atomic and hydrogen weapons and the ability to deliver these to the enemy. So long as we can put one hydrogen bomb over the Soviet Union, we have the capacity to render another war an unbearable holocaust for the Russian people.

The evidence at this moment suggests that we are trailing Russia in the development of long-range guided missiles which could deliver nuclear warheads. But the race is not over. Just as the Soviet Union learned the secret of nuclear weapons after we had jumped into a huge lead, so we can redress the balance in the missile field.

Our great nuclear arsenal plus the prospect of success in the missile and satellite field should give us confidence, though plainly there no longer is room for smugness and complacency.

Neither we nor our friends should be panicked into submitting totally or one by one to Russia. War is just as unthinkable for both sides today as it was before "Sputnik" was launched.

So long as this is so, our resolve to hold out for peace with justice for the great bulk of mankind in the free world should not crumble.

We have no reason to yield in fear. Rather we should resist in the sure knowledge of our undiminished strength, and set about adding to it with all the resources at our command.

'How Are The Mighty Fallen'

A sad by-product of the world's furore over the Soviet man-made satellite was reflected recently in the wry comment of a British scientist, Dr. D. C. Martin.

He said Britain lacks the resources to take part in the competitive contest for supremacy in the earth satellite field. As a consequence, he added, the British will have to content themselves with monitoring the movements of other nations' artificial "moons."

It is hard to realize that this is a voice from the once all-powerful British Empire, which reached to the corners of the earth and swept the seas clear of hostile foes.

Thus the empire, once dominant on the field of power, is reduced to a kind of umpire—counting the balls and strikes of other players.

WASHINGTON (AP) — What has the United States done to knock down Sputnik—in a propaganda sense, that is?

As of today, two weeks after the Russians launched their little ball into space, the U.S. government has announced one affirmative action: it has shaken up its own don't object to the word! machinery.

Out goes Arthur Larson as head of the U.S. Information Agency, the outfit which has the job of telling this country's story overseas. Larson becomes a special assistant to President Eisenhower for "special projects" in the propaganda field. The White House says he'll deal with "among other things" — the satellite's impact on world opinion.

Into Larson's job goes career diplomat George V. Allen, who has held pretty much the same job before. He is not to be confused with George E. Allen, who used to play poker with President Truman and now plays golf with President Eisenhower.

George V. Allen takes over as this country's nearest equivalent to a propaganda minister. Or at least he will take over as soon as he winds up his affairs as ambassador to Greece. It might be asked what he will have to publicize in the way of a counter-attraction to Sputnik. There is no ready answer.

What about Larson? Does his new job revive the cold war planning, or psychological warfare, office which the White House maintained earlier in the "Partly," says presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty. This isn't too informative since it never has been made clear what such former cold war planners as Nelson Rockefeller and C. D. Jackson were planning.

(C. D. Jackson, best known as a Time-Life Fortune executive, is not to be confused with William H. Jackson, a lawyer and banker, who also has held the psychological warfare assignment.)

Necessarily, there is secrecy about propaganda planning. It is hardly surprising that there should be some confusion too. After all, those commissioned to tell the truth about these United States could hardly keep it secret that we get at least as much mixed up as any other people.

But in more serious vein:

If this country has in mind any scientific achievement which will eclipse the satellite—as a propaganda stunt, whatever the military or scientific value—the public hasn't been told of it.

So, from that standpoint, shifting information chiefs around is like firing a baseball manager because you didn't buy him any good players.

Fortunately, this country has more to tell the world in the way of honest propaganda than a satellite story. And it usually is possible to count on the Russians to do anti-Soviet propaganda for us—as they did in Hungary and are doing in the Middle East.

But it would be nice if we had a supersatellite or some sort of scientific gizmo to take the spotlight off Sputnik. Any ideas?

European Retirement Nice

But It Also Involves Risk

BY BEULAH STOWE

Mr. B. of Akron, Ohio, has a pension of $175 a month. He and his wife are getting by living carefully. But in West Germany, where they have relatives, they would be able to live well on much less than $175.

The B's visited their brothers and sisters in Germany last year. They both liked the country and the people. Mrs. B. wants to live there permanently, as their relatives urge them to do. They could rent a nice apartment, Mr. B. says, and live comfortably on about $100 a month. Should they do it?

Mr. B. is 75. He has been in the United States for 52 years and his wife has been here for 35 years.

"We are set in the American way of life," says Mr. B., "and we like it very much. I think changing to a new life at my age might prove quite a problem. But living gets more expensive here and the pension does not increase."

The B's and other retired people who consider moving to foreign shores where living costs are kinder to a fixed income should consider these four points:

1. Your chances of coming back, at age 75, are slight. This move, if you make it, will take you to the place where you will end your days.

2. You may like the life you have right here better than you realize. It's familiar and it's safe and it is filled with many ties whether or not you have members of your family nearby.

3. You may be more patriotic than you think. You might spend the rest of your life trying to explain to the people in your chosen country just how good things were back in the United States. (Many older people have had this experience, but have been too proud or too committed, to turn back.)

4. You must provide for your husband or your wife. Could he or she live happily in the new home, should you die first?

Mr. B., who already has his doubts, would be wiser to stay at home.

Q—I will retire this January. My wife and I will get $162 a month from Social Security. We own our home, and think it would bring $15,000. We also have $8,500 in savings. Can we afford to retire somewhere in the South where there's sunshine?"—G. R.

—You have earned your sunshine. If you sell the house and put this money plus your savings into a conservative investment paying 4 per cent interest, your money will add $940 annually, or about $78 a month, to your income. This will give you $237 a month. Many couples are living happily, though not luxuriously, in Florida and Arizona on less than this.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

'That the Ministry Be Not Blamed'

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

Saint Paul evidently thought of the Christian ministry as consisting of more than apostles, like himself, or appointed Christian leaders. He seems to be writing to all in the Corinthian church (II Corinthians 6:3) urging "that the ministry be not blamed," though he proceeds to write more particularly of his own ministry.

In a deep sense every true Christian is, or ought to be, a minister, and in some denominations, such as my own (Congregational, originally at least) there has been no distinct separation between ordained ministers and laymen.

But in more serious vein:

If this country has in mind any scientific achievement which will eclipse the satellite—as a propaganda stunt, whatever the military or scientific value—the public hasn't been told of it.

So, from that standpoint, shifting information chiefs around is like firing a baseball manager because you didn't buy him any good players.

On a tour of U.S. naval bases, he got to Pearl Harbor where the U.S. admirals took him surfing and plays with Shau Ping, the next-door neighbor, who is the daughter of a Chinese embassy official.

The two youngsters liked to play in the mud in Shau Ping's back yard, to the irritation of both mothers.

"SALLY," her mother shouted to the gals, busy at their favorite pastime, "are you and Shau Ping making mud pies again?"

"No, mother," Sally yelled back, "we're making egg rolls."

MORE ABOUT TURTLES By Ray Broekel

The sense of smell in turtles has been little tested, although gathered information rates their sense of smell as poor.

Turtles are very sensitive to touch, even on their shells.

These creatures are not very intelligent—the land forms being somewhat smarter than aquatic, or water species.

Turtles, generally, are of a mild and meek disposition. Those with large protective shells are more gentle mannered than those less protected, such as the snapping and soft-shelled turtles.

All turtles, however, just as human beings, have periods when they find nothing at all right with the world, and might decide to rip the hand that feeds them.

Box Turtles are generally conceded to be the most mild mannered of all the turtles.

Long Lives

These creatures, the turtles, attain quite old ages, the greatest of any living animals with backbones in most cases.

They reach adulthood much more quickly than was thought not too many years ago.

Little Indian Rose

By Mrs. Otto Dorr

Part 2: Fine Surprise
Rose knocked at door after door asking, "Would you like to see my pottery pieces?" One lady smiled and said, "How do you happen to speak English so well?"

Grey-haired Rose answered, "I used to go to Secona Indian School when I was a little girl." My Father and Mother were early Missionaries there, did you know it?" the lady asked.

Rose looked at her closely, slowly replied, "You look like my te-her, you are her little girl."

In she described that long remembered week at the Reservation School and continued with her grandchildren's plight.

Help For Rose

You are entitled to receive help from the agency since you care for your grandchildren; her white friend kindly said, "Wait a moment while I make out an application for you."

Tired Rose sat down on the porch steps to unwrap her pots for her little grandchildren now.

Better Days

That began better fortune for Rose. The Agency provided her with corn meal, beans and squash until her garden would have a better season, and again tourists looked for her well made pottery on market days. She could care for her little grandchildren now.

NO COINS

Although he was the wealthiest man of his time, King Solomon didn't have a cent to his name.

Colored money had not appeared in Palestine during his reign, in the 10th century B.C.

MRS. GERALD PRICE

Paula Marie Newberry And Gerald Price Wed At Presbyterian Church In Virginia

VIRGINIA—The local Presbyterian church was the scene Sunday afternoon, October 13, for the double ring ceremony uniting Miss Paula Marie Newberry of Virginia and Gerald Price of Ashland.

Rev. E. M. McGehee received the vows in the presence of many relatives and friends. The bride was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Henry George McDonald.

A profusion of ferns and palms formed the background for white gladioli and mums, flanked by candleabra holding white tapers.

Miss Mary Ann White, cousin of the bride, presented the organ prelude using "One Alone," "Thine Alone," "At Dawning," "I Love You Truly," "I'll Walk Beside You," "With This Ring," "O, Promise Me" and "Always."

Henry George McDonald, uncle of the bride, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because." After the ceremony as the couple knelt, he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. June Newberry, of Virginia. The groom is the son of Mrs. John A. Price of Ashland.

Satin And Lace

The bride's gown was white wedding satin featuring a chapel train. The bouffant skirt of nylon net over the satin met a front satin panel edged with wide scalloped Chantilly lace. The fitted satin and lace bodice was sequin and pearl trimmed and featured a sabrina neckline. The long sleeves were pointed over the hands.

Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was held in place by a bandeau encrusted with seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a handkerchief made by her great grandmother sixty-eight years ago.

Her flowers were white roses, centered with a white orchid. The attendants wore identical gowns of champagne colored nylon chiffon fashioned with sleeveless princess cut bodices. The bouffant skirts were worn over hoops and featured a sash at the hipline of cocoa chiffon.

They carried cascade bouquets of champagne carnations tied with brown ribbon. Their head-dresses were of champagne car-

Reception At Church

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a four-tiered square cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The white frosted cake was daintily decorated in green and yellow and flanked by tall white tapers in crystal candelabras.

The flower girl wore a floor length dress of pale green nylon chiffon over taffeta. The puffed sleeves and neckline were finished with narrow white lace. She wore a green satin sash at the waist and carried a basket of petals. Her crown was of champagne carnations.

The ring bearer wore navy tuxedo, white jacket and bow tie. He wore a white carnation boutonniere. The candlelighters wore their white choir robes.

The bride's mother wore a brown sheath dress with brown accessories and a winter-white hat. Her corsage was red roses.

The groom's mother wore a navy dress with small turquoise figure. Her accessories were navy and she wore a corsage of white roses.

MRS. ROBERT F. REISER

Ashland Man And Bride Of Manteno Live In Chicago

ASHLAND — Robert F. Reiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reiser, of St. Louis, was married in September to Miss Joan Bergeron of Manteno at Nuptial High Mass performed at Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Bergeron of Manteno. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Hern.

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with fitted bodice made with scalloped portrait neckline and tapered sleeves coming to points over the hands. From the snug waist a delicate lace tier topped two others that formed the full skirt of the gown. Seed pearls with sequins formed the dainty crown holding her shoulder length veil of sheer illusion and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis with a white prayer book.

She wore a double strand pearl necklace and matching earrings as her only jewelry.

Miss Sue Bergeron served her as maid of honor wearing a waltz length gown of aqua colored satin styled with scoop neck and cap sleeves. Her head-dress was in the same shade of satin and her slippers also matched her costume. She carried a corsage of white roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Cissie and Miss Georgia Sotos, who wore champagne colored satin styled identically to the gown worn by the honor maid.

The long fitted sleeves tapered to a point over her wrists and a Peter Pan collar graced the round-necked neckline.

The sheath skirt was fashioned with a flared back panel. A matching lace coif cap secured her shoulder length veil of illusion.

Ivory satin pumps completed her wedding costume and she carried a hand bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor wore a street length satin sheath in a cranberry red shade with match-

Mrs. Garlich Is Hostess For CWF Group 6

Mrs. Edwin Garlich, 1512 Mound avenue was hostess to group six of Christian Women's Fellowship, Central Christian church Wednesday evening, Oct. 16.

Mrs. Aiden Ryan presented devotions after which Mrs. Ralph Jones, leader, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Jones distributed tickets for the annual turkey dinner to be served by the ladies of the CWF at the Masonic Temple on Nov. 6. Plans were made for workers and food for the dinner.

World Community Day was announced to be observed at the First Baptist church at 2:00 p.m. on Nov. 16. A list of articles wanted for Parcels for Peace was read. These articles may be taken to Mrs. Jones' home prior to mailing date where they will be assembled from the various groups and mailed. Dr. Bessell will be the speaker at the service at the First Baptist church.

The lesson study was brought to the group by Mrs. William O'Brien using the theme, Christ, The Church—The Race. Mrs. O'Brien had prepared a chart series which was used in an interesting manner as different members participated in the topic "The Church Speaks About Race."

The bride is a graduate of the University of Illinois and is associated with the council of Professional Practices at the American Hospital Association. The groom graduated from the University of Missouri and is a senior in DePaul University law school. They will make their home in Chicago.

SIGN ERROR

CARLSBAD, Calif. (UPI) — Chief Bob Hardin and his fire laddies busied themselves recently making some rustic signs for the city hall grounds: signs saying "entry," "exit" and such.

The signs are carefully made by cutting letters in wood with an electric router and then emblazoning them with yellow paint.

Imagine the fire chief's embarrassment when he discovered that the sign so carefully made for the front of the fire station had his name spelled "Hadlin" instead of Hardin.

Thirteen members were present.

MRS. CHARLES M. REDFIELD

Rites Saturday At Roodhouse Unite Margaret Wolfe And Charles Redfield

ROODHOUSE—In an impressive candlelight ceremony, Miss Margaret Jean Wolfe, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wolfe of Roodhouse, became the bride of Charles M. Redfield of St. Louis, Missouri, at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, October nineteenth, at the First Baptist Church here. Vows for the double ring ceremony were received by the pastor, Dr. H. L. Janvrin, in the presence of the families.

The candlelighted altar was gracefully decorated with palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

During the musical prelude the candles were lighted by James Ransom, of Columbia, Missouri, cousin of the bride, and John H. Bray of St. Louis, Missouri, who served as ushers.

Mrs. H. L. Janvrin played organ selections including "Sevenade" by Schubert, "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg, "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, "Chanson" by Prini, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Traumerei" by Schumann, and the traditional wedding march by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

The tables were decorated with white chrysanthemums and gladioli centerpiece and lighted white tapers. An arrangement of white baby mums encircled and graced the top of the beautifully decorated wedding cake situated in front of the bride's table.

Guests were received at the Dunlap Hotel in Jacksonville following the ceremony where a wedding dinner was served at six-thirty o'clock.

Mr. Redfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Redfield of Fredericksburg, Missouri, attended St. George's College in Quilmes, Argentina, and was graduated from the Fredericksburg high school in 1956-57 school term, returning home in June of this year.

She was a member of Delta Gamma social sorority. She attended the University of Strasbourg in Strasbourg, France, as a Rotary Foundation Fellow for the 1956-57 school term, returning home in June of this year.

Mr. Redfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Redfield of Fredericksburg, Missouri, attended St. George's College in Quilmes, Argentina, and was graduated from the Fredericksburg high school in 1956-57 school term, returning home in June of this year.

Guests were received at the Dunlap Hotel in Jacksonville following the ceremony where a wedding dinner was served at six-thirty o'clock.

The couple drove to St. Louis from where they left via plane for the Island of Bermuda.

For her going away costume the bride chose a black wool-crepe suit with a white mink collar, white satin hat and black suede accessories. Upon their return the couple will reside in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Redfield was graduated from Roodhouse Community High School in 1952. She attended

Jerseyville To Host State Meeting Of Federated Women's Clubs Oct. 25

JERSEYVILLE—For the first time in history, Jerseyville will be host city to the Illinois Federation of Women's Club Conference which will be held Oct. 25 at the First Methodist Church. The conference is conducted by state officers and chairmen for the benefit of officers and chairmen of the clubs, in order to clarify their duties and outline their work for the year. Eight officers and 26 chairmen, composing the state body will be here at that time to conduct workshops, climaxing a week of travel by chartered bus to different towns in Illinois.

Hospitesses for the conference will be the Jerseyville Woman's Club of which Mrs. Louis N. Heider is president, and the 20th District of IFWC of which Mrs. John M. Pine of Bluffs, Ill., is Jr.

Standard Time

All programs of the conference will be operated on Standard Time. A Coffee Hour will be held from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. at the Methodist church and registration begins at 8:30 a.m. at the Methodist church with Mrs. Ray Well as chairman of the registration committee.

A breakfast will be served at the Baptist church at 8:30 a.m. for members of the visiting caravans only.

The city is welcoming the visitors by presenting the drivers of out-of-town cars transporting Rice of Jerseyville from 9:30 to CHICAGO, Ill.—Master Sergeant David E. Rawlings, 6620 South Rockwell, received a Fifth United States Army Certificate of Achievement at a ceremony held at the Headquarters, U. S. Army Military District, Illinois, 536 South Clark Street.

M.Sgt. Rawlings was cited for meritorious service as Personel Sergeant Major in the Illinois Federation, at 2:30 p.m. The conference will be adjourned at 3 p.m.

General chairman of arrangements for the conference is Mrs. Marcus J. Ryan of Jerseyville, district chairman of Indian affairs.

All conference workers will meet at the Jerseyville Public Library at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 24 for final instructions.

urably to the success achieved by his organization in accomplishing its mission.

"The meritorious service rendered by M.Sgt. Rawlings reflects great credit on him and the military service."

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Rawlings, live at Route One, Franklin, Ill., where Sgt. Rawlings holds a membership in the American Legion. He is also a member of the Knights of Columbus in Jacksonville, Ill., where he attended Routh College High School, graduating in 1944.

In addition to other decorations, Sgt. Rawlings has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal with three loops, the American Theater Medal, the Asiatic Pacific Medal, and the World War II Victory Medal.

CARS ARE MY Line
by: E. W. Brown
WATCH THAT DIP STICK!

Most of us let the garageman take out the dip stick from the engine block, wipe it off and put it back in again to check the oil level. It's a messy job and an easy way to mark up a clean white shirt.

I usually "leave it to George" too, but in looking over a used car, the oil on the dip stick and the dip stick itself can tell you a lot about what the car looks like inside.

Here's one simple test that's effective: wipe the oil off the dip stick (after getting your shirt sleeves out of the way) and notice if the surface of the stick is pock-marked or etched on the part that is normally below the surface of the oil.

If it is, that's a sign of acid. Most fuels contain a trace of acid and if the engine is running cold, or a cylinder is missing, unburned fuel, with this acid, makes its way into the crankcase and will eventually attack polished steel surfaces, such as the crank-shaft journals, the cams, the links and pins in the timing chain-and, of course, the dip stick.

And while we're about it, this is the time to point out the importance of changing oil frequently. This acid action against the car's vital insides is the penalty of letting old oil work its worst against your engine.

These are some of the simple tests anyone can perform when shopping around for a used car. Before a car comes on to our lot, of course, trained people make sure that it's a good buy for the owner to whom we'll pass it on.

Loyal Women's Class Meets At Garrison Home

WHITE HALL — The Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Clara Garrison on Wednesday afternoon with ten members and one guest. Mrs. Emma Chapman, president, presided at the meeting with each member bringing an inspirational message. The group voted to make a monthly payment toward the purchase of new Monroe banquet tables for the church dining room, recently ordered by members of the Harmony class.

Mrs. Garrison served pumpkin pie, whipped cream, coffee and tea.

The Loyal Daughters class of the First Christian church held a potluck dinner at the church on Thursday noon with the prayer of grace for the supper by the pastor, Rev. Ruth Nicklin. Mrs. Paul Pratt was selected as president, and Mrs. Glen Vandaveer as secretary. Several projects were discussed. The November meeting will be a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Otis L. Neighbors.

LYNNVILLE AID SOCIETY MEETS AT HEATON HOME

The October meeting of the Lynnville Christian Church Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Sallie Heaton with 21 members present. Mrs. Lucy Jewsbury and Miss Margaret Heaton were the assistant hostesses.

President Mrs. Edith Mason conducted the business and the devotions were given by Mrs. Eileen McNeely. The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. Eunice Hills and Miss Sallie McKinney. Fall poems were read by Mrs. Lorena Wynn and contests were conducted by Mrs. Eunice Hills. The prize was won by Mrs. Essie Cooper.

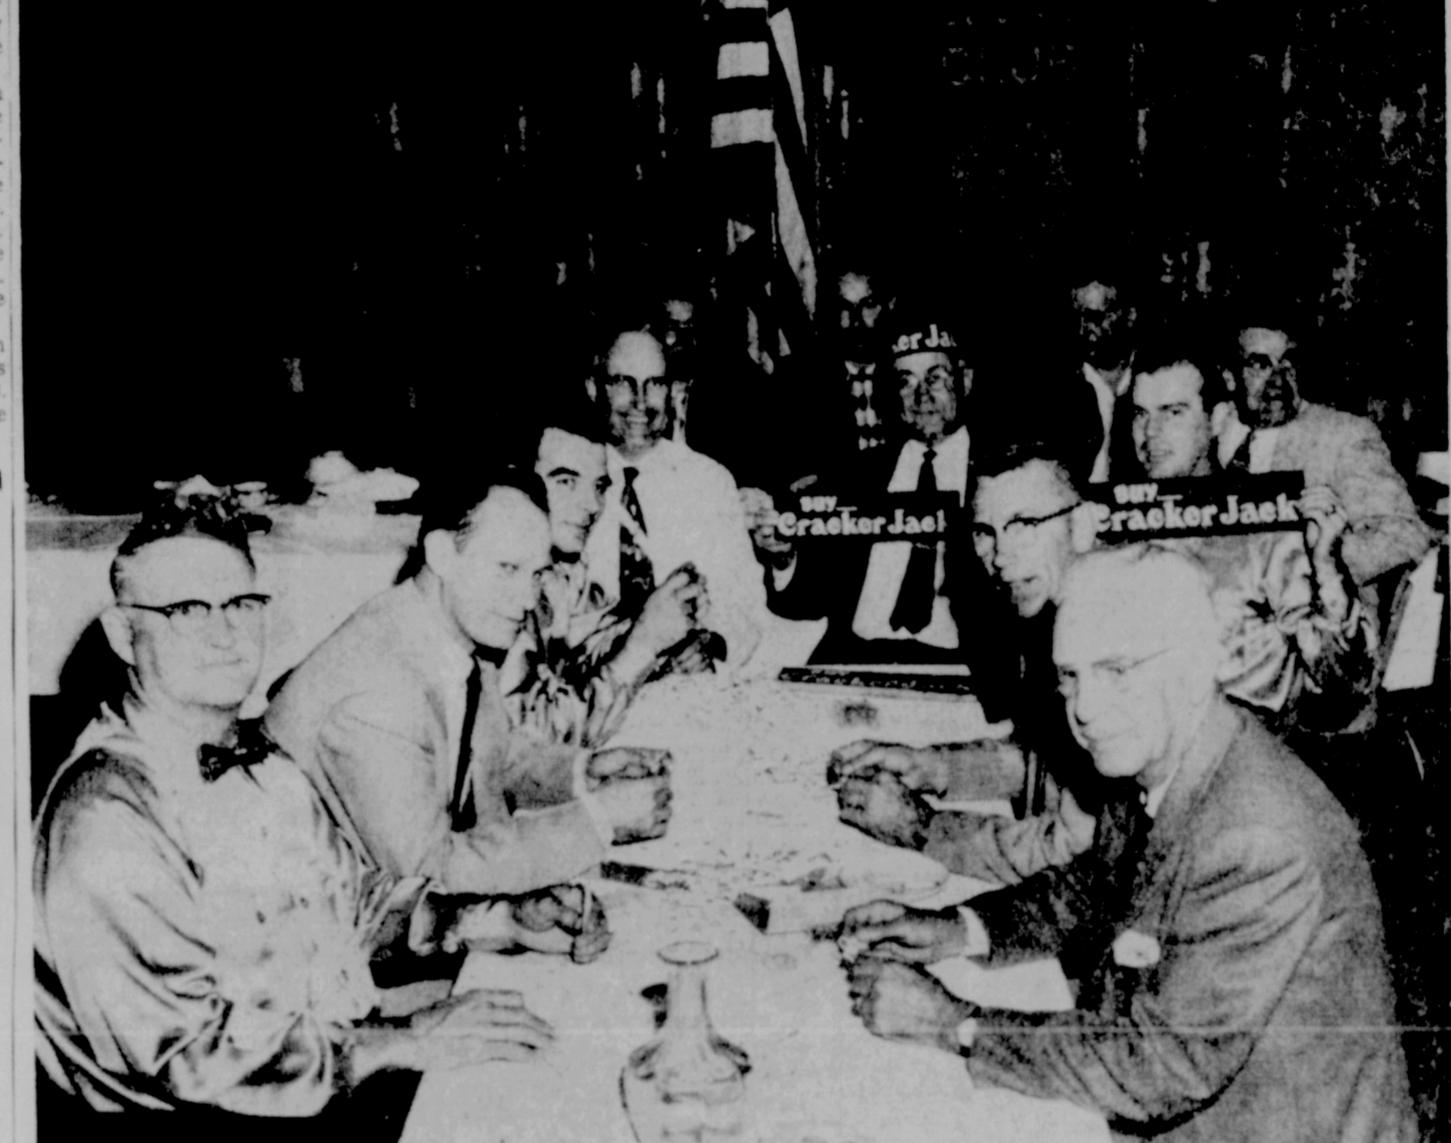

At the close of the afternoon program a "Silent Auction" was held which netted the society $13. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Lions Prepare For 'Be Thankful You Can See' Campaign

Members of the Jacksonville Lions Club load cases of Cracker Jack in preparation for Friday and Saturday's "Be Thankful You Can See" campaign.

Jacksonville Lions Plan 'Be Thankful You Can See' Campaign Friday-Saturday

Edward Wiegand, president of the Jacksonville Lions Club, announced that the club is joining with over 500 other Lions Clubs of Illinois for a State-wide "Aid To The Blind" campaign during October 25 and 26, which has been designated as "Be Thankful You Can See Week," climaxed with "White Cane Cracker Jack Day" throughout the entire State.

On "White Cane Cracker Jack Day" Lions will be helping to raise funds through community collections and for each contribution, the donor will be presented a white plastic cane for his lapel and Cracker Jack for the kiddies.

The program has been developed over the years to raise funds by the local Lions Clubs and the funds are given by the Club to various blind organizations such as Hadley School For the Blind where Braille courses are taught by mail, tuition free. The funds also are used to support the Leader Dog School For the Blind where guide dogs are trained to lead. On a local level, the Club will use a portion of the funds for School District 117 eye glass fund for underprivileged children.

The Lions ask you to remember "Aid To The Blind Week" in October and to contribute to the cause. "Money cannot buy back a man's eyes, but it can help to purchase freedom to move about and opportunity to earn a living."

'HYGROMIX' SUMMARY

'Hygromix' feeds offer a completely new, effective way to control worms in swine.

'Hygromix' is the first worm-control method for swine that can be used on a continuous, low-level basis . . . protecting pigs as soon as they begin to eat solid feed.

'Hygromix' in feed controls not only the large roundworm, but also at least two other damaging swine worms . . . the nodular worm and the whipworm.

'Hygromix' controls swine worms in two ways: (1) It stops the production of worm eggs. (2) It kills worms before they mature. 'Hygromix' is the only worm control product which

WOLF CREEK

By W. Edmunds Claussen

THE STORY: The stagecoach carrying Dave Sharadin to the Padre mountains of Arizona, where his father's ranch is located, was held up by Indians.

Sherry answered quickly, "Bring the guard down, please. We'll look after him."

Later Dave swung onto the high outer seat. The front of the stage had taken a dozen arrows and long splinters were gouged from the woodwork by the Mohaves' carbine fire. On the seat was the stain left by the guard's bleeding.

The doctor was a short, thick-set man far older than the more years any recorder might enter into his book. There was a streak of gray at each temple and he still wore his blue army jacket which was disheveled in front and had one brass button torn loose leaving a hole in the fabric.

"A patch and you'll be all right," he threw his unsympathetic words toward Browne.

Later the doctor spoke to Dave. "Doc's about as good as they come, for man or cow. He was a surgeon in the war an' I guess they gave him a bad time. Once or twice a month he takes on a load."

The doctor was a short, thick-set man far older than the more years any recorder might enter into his book. There was a streak of gray at each temple and he still wore his blue army jacket which was disheveled in front and had one brass button torn loose leaving a hole in the fabric.

"Do you know me, Doc?"

"I know your old man—and like him, too." He added the latter comment with definite emphasis, as though daring the camp to argue the point.

The driver yelled sharply, "Juan!"

"Comin'," a voice answered from the runway. The man drifted on, paused beside the stage; a tall man stooped from his work, and dark now under the unlighted stage barn. "Looks like you put up a scrap somewhere."

The driver spat over his rail.

"Burdette's station. Hope Doc is sober. My guard's busted."

Dave helped carry the wounded mail guard inside the barn. There was a cot on which they laid the guard. He had his eyes open but he kept making low sounds in pain.

The driver gave Browne a concentrated stare. "So's my guard. I've got to put him inside. Feel he shifted his glance to Sherry.

"There's a saloon down the block that rents rooms. Sort of a hotel that's been busted."

"You're not a frontier doctor."

A faint tightening warped the corners of Lockridge's mouth. He shrugged indifferently.

"Many an army surgeon never went home after the war. Too many men in his town wearing scars drawn by his knife—tooo many of them remembering the arms and legs they lost. It's not pleasant for them to think about Or for the doctor."

Sharradon wants a horse, Juan will lend him one."

"What kind of doctor did you send for?" Browne asked.

"Doc's about as good as they come, for man or cow. He was a surgeon in the war an' I guess they gave him a bad time. Once or twice a month he takes on a load."

"A patch and you'll be all right," he threw his unsympathetic words toward Browne.

Later the doctor spoke to Dave. "I got an idea you'd like to get to the Block S fast as you can. Juan will give me all the help I need with these fellows. You don't have to wait."

"Do you know me, Doc?"

"I know your old man—and like him, too." He added the latter comment with definite emphasis, as though daring the camp to argue the point.

The driver spat over his rail.
